BENGALURU AMONG TOP FIVE DIVERSE A.I. CITIES GLOBALLY

A ranking finds the city's talent pool for artificial intelligence workers to be second largest in the world & fifth most diverse

HIGHER DIVERSITY COULD DRAW RECRUITERS

One of the biggest challenges in the AI sector is the shortage of skilled workers. And, as the Harvard Business Review (HBR) points out, cities that have a more diverse talent pool — in terms of gender and race along with migrant acceptance and cost of living — are essential to make AI more ethical and inclusive, given its growing importance in our lives | P2

MORE DIGITAL INFRASTRUCTURE NEEDED

- Hyderabad, New Delhi and Mumbai also figure in HBR's ranking of the top 50 AI cities, though the publication says Indian cities are constrained by their level of "digital evolution and infrastructure"
- San Francisco is No.1 in the ranking, beating New York and Seattle by a big margin in terms of talent pool, investments and diversity

Anti-conversion Bill passed in Assembly amid uproar

Opposition puts up vociferous protest, Council test ahead

NAUSHAD BIJAPUR @ Belagavi

KARNATAKA has become the ninth state in the country to pass the anti-conversion Bill which has come under severe criticism from various quarters. Amid huge opposition and uproar by Congress legislators, The Karnataka Protection of Right to Freedom of Religion Bill-2021 was passed by voice vote in the Assembly on the penultimate day of the winter session, being held at the Suvarna Vidhana Soudha in Belagavi.

The Assembly adopted the Bill even as Congress legislators rushed to the well of the House in protest, terming it as draconian and unconstitutional. During a marathon debate on the Bill through the day, several top leaders of the Congress, JDS and BJP were engaged in a war of words over which government first came up with a plan to draft such a Bill and get it passed in the legislature.

When the debate was initiated by Opposition leader Siddaramaiah, who termed the Bill as unconstitutional and draconian, Law Minister J C Madhuswamy intervened to recall that it was the Congress government, headed by Siddaramaiah, which took the initiative to come up with an anti-conversion Bill in 2016 for the first time.

The Law Minister said, "A similar Bill was drafted by the Law Commission when Siddaramaiah was CM and the Bill also was brought before the Screening Committee and eventually before the State Cabinet. We have made some changes to it and tabled it in the Assembly."

Central teams to strengthen Omicron fight

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@ New Delhi

THE Union Government will send Central teams to states with low Covid-19 vaccination, rising cases and insufficient health infrastructure to assist them, it was decided in a high-level meeting chaired by Prime Minister Narendra Modi on Thursday to review the situation in the country.

The PM directed officials to ensure that the health systems in the states, beginning from the district level, are strengthened to meet any challenge posed by the Omicron variant whose total case count crossed 300 in India.

It is important for states to ensure that oxygen supply equipment is installed and fully functional, he instructed, also urging officials to work with states on a regular basis and review the status of preparedness of various components of health infrastructure.

Earlier, the Union Health ministry proposed a five-point strategy to tackle any future Covid wave in the wake of the Omicron outbreak, including subjecting samples from any cluster to whole genome sequencing to identify the presence of the strain and quickly press in necessary measures.

In a review meeting with states, Union health secretary Rajesh Bhushan reiterated the need to impose night curfews and ensure strict regulation of large gatherings, especially ahead of the forthcoming festivities.

With second-largest AI talent pool, B'luru ranked 5th in world

Investments, diversity of talent, cost of living, and inclusivity among many factors that were analysed for the ranking of the top 50 AI cities across the globe

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@ Bengaluru

BENGALURU has emerged among the top five cities in the world for Artificial Intelligence (AI), ranked at No. 5, with the first four being cities in the USA. The ranking is among top 50 AI cities, measured by the TIDE Framework and listed by Harvard Business Review (HBR).

The top four cities are San Francisco, New York, Boston and Seattle. The ranking factors in diversity and inclusive talent pool.

Reviewers have noted that Bengaluru also has the world's second-largest AI talent pool and is ranked fifth for diversity among AI workers, as measured by data from Fletcher school, Tufts University, and derived at based on a framework of indicators such as talent pool, investments, diversity of talent, evolution of the country's digital foundations (TIDE).

Another feather in Bengaluru's cap is that it is also among cities on HBR's list of AI hotspots in the developing world — these cities also score favourably on the cost of living, which could be a powerful draw for diverse talent, the reviewers noted. Other such cities include Hyderabad, Jakarta, Lagos, Nairobi, Mexico City, Buenos Aires and Saõ Paolo.

Among Indian cities in the global ranking are New Delhi (18th) and Hyderabad (19th), while Mumbai is ranked 27th in terms of diversity of AI talent.

Diversity and inclusive pool of talent developing AI matter to the reviewers as AI developers are influenced by their own world views, which, in turn, guide them in their selection of applications, data sets and training of algorithms. The reviewers believe that the factors collectively give companies a way to prioritise their AI talent sourcing choices by scoring the different locations on the concentration, quality and diversity of the AI talent pool.

Gunjan Krishna, Commissioner for Industrial Development and Director, Department of Industries & Commerce, Government of Karnataka, told TNIE that she was thrilled that Bengaluru is one of the top cities in the world for AI and has the world's second-largest AI talent pool. "The AI landscape is dynamic, especially in the developing world. We are leading the way for a future in innovation and technology. AI has become a key technology that stresses on the quality of innovation as a critical success factor in technological competitiveness," she added.

Phase-2A: Metro gets HC nod to cut 577 trees

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@ Bengaluru

The Karnataka High Court on Thursday permitted the Bangalore Metro Rail Corporation Ltd (BMRCL) to cut 577 trees, translocate 212 trees and retain 44 out of 833 trees on different stretches of Phase-2A of the Metro project, as recommended by the Technical Experts Committee (TEC). The High Court observed that judges are not experts to decide whether 577 trees can be allowed to be cut or not when the TEC has given its opinion.

A division bench of Chief Justice Ritu Raj Awasthi and Justice Sachin Shankar Magaum passed the order while allowing the application filed by the BMRCL seeking permission to cut trees based on the TEC report. The court noted that as many as 256 trees can be saved by retaining 44 trees and translocating 212 trees, as suggested by the TEC.

The court was hearing public interest litigation filed by Dattatreya T Devare and Bangalore Environment Trust in 2018 with regard to non-implementation of Karnataka Preservation of Trees Act.

Meanwhile, permitting the Karnataka Road Development Corporation Ltd to cut 18 trees and translocate nine trees as per TEC's recommendation for the Bengaluru Surrounding Roads project, the court mentioned the necessity of new plantation as recommended by the panel, to compensate for the trees proposed to be felled.

Time for thermals: IMD warns of bitter cold this year-end

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@ Bengaluru

IF the winter chill is leaving you numb, get yourself mittens and thermals: a wave of bone-biting cold is forecast to sweep most parts of Karnataka in the coming days.

Most districts of Karnataka, like Bidar and Vijayapura, are already in the grip of cold weather, with temperatures falling 5-6 degree Celsius below normal. In fact, in most districts, skies are clear and temperatures have fallen 1-2 degree Celsius.

However, on Thursday, Bengaluru recorded maximum temperature of 28.2 degree Celsius, which is 2 degree Celsius above normal.

IMD officials say that on December 18, Bidar recorded 9.6 degree Celsius minimum temperature. On December 19, Bidar recorded 9.4 degree Celsius, HAL airport recorded 13.6 degree and Kempegowda International Airport recorded 14.4° C minimum temperature.

IMD-Bengaluru Director-in-charge Geeta Agnihotri told TNIE that temperatures are dipping due to clear skies and the presence of northerly winds, and will continue to drop in the days ahead. The lowest minimum Bidar has ever recorded is 6.2 degree Celsius in January. The maximum temperatures is most districts across the state are also 1-2 degree Celsius below normal.

Bengaluru recorded the lowest minimum of 8.9 degree Celsius on December 29, 1883. Other chilling records for the city are 12.8 degree in 2011, and 12 degree Celsius on December 11, 2016. On December 22, 2020, Bengaluru recorded the lowest minimum of 14.2° Celsius.

Social organisations, NGOs struggling after pandemic, finds report

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@ Bengaluru

A study released by Azim Premji University on Thursday, found that NGOs and other social sector institutions are struggling post-pandemic, despite being vital assets in the dissemination of resources. "Health has become a major area where we have to respond now, which was never the case before the pandemic," said Anand Bolimera, director of Partnering Hope Into Action (PHIA) Foundation, one of the organisations surveyed.

Organisations across India were found to have been severely impacted by the pandemic in terms of funding, workforce and effects on existing programmes. According to the study, social sector organisations (SSOs) included NGOs, not-for-profits and community and social enterprises. "Many of them faced multiple challenges related to their programmes, carrying out relief work, raising and mobilising funds, training and retaining staff during the lockdown and after," the report said.

In a panel discussion following the launch, representatives from Prajayatna, Aga Khan Rural Support Programme (India), and PHIA Foundation highlighted the various issues they had faced. "We had to deal with a delay or lack of funds, quality of work we were undertaking during this period had also dropped and though there were numerous schemes to help people, barely 10% were able to access them," said Mary Punnoose, chief functionary of Prajayatna.

They also struggled to provide relief to those affected by the pandemic, especially migrant workers who had returned to their hometowns. "There was a massive shortage of food and money to sustain disadvantaged people. A lot of money went into helping farmers, especially as they had no money for inputs for the coming year, money for seeds and fertilisers, etc," said Naveen Patidar, director of Aga Khan Rural Support Programme (India).

The most prominent point of discussion, however, was with regard to the future. "We hope we don't have to face a similar challenge again. At this point, relief is not enough, we must focus on providing rehabilitation," Bolimera said.

Punnoose, whose organisation is involved in public education, said, "'Technology in schools and other institutions is inevitable. Education, in particular, is reliant on personal and social interactions."

Daily Starscope

PETER VIDAL

24th December: If we were to apply a little simple numerology to today's date, then the day number is 6. As it happens this is a number of harmony, one which encourages us to make peace with family, friends – and ourselves. It's a very positive moment for all bold, freedom-loving and independent spirits. What more could we ask?

ARIES (Mar 21 - Apr. 20)
At your most prolific you're capable of rushing along at an incredible rate. Now that Mars is having such an impact on your working life you should brook no opposition and accept no compromise. Even though the planet has moved on, its turbulent effects remain.

TAURUS (Apr. 21 - May 21)
Relationships with children may have been rather trouble some over the last couple of days. The truth of the matter may be that you are more sensitive than usual, not that young relatives are necessarily behaving worse. It's up to you to set an example.

GEMINI (May 22 - June 21)
Today's dominant planetary alignment opens the door to a brave new future. You may begin to see the sense in family differences or domestic pressures that until now have seemed somewhat pointless. It's up to you to restore the commonsense to your closest relationships.

CANCER (June 22 - July 23)
As a matter of principle you should acknowledge that there is some truth in other people's opinions even if you personally feel that they are completely and utterly wrong. You must concede the possibility that it is you who are mistaken, and hence must change.

LEO (July 24 - Aug. 23)
Even though the planets are activating a number of areas of your chart, the emphasis is still solidly on your financial affairs. There doesn't seem any way around the fact that this is a high-spending period. But, then, you can always cut out unnecessary costs.

VIRGO (Aug. 24 - Sept. 23)
Life may still be a little fraught and unpredictable. If you are sure that all expected dramatic events have now taken place you may begin to pick up the pieces and wonder where you go from here. That is still to be revealed, so bide your time until you're ready.

LIBRA (Sept. 24 - Oct. 23)
You have been playing the romantic lead for long enough. However, there's no need to come down to earth just yet. Hopefully you have by now recovered from a recent fright or upset. True to your nature, your equilibrium will be restored sooner than you think.

SCORPIO (Oct. 24 - Nov. 22)
Travel stars are still strong, but you may have been blown off course by what friends and acquaintances have done or said in the last twenty-four hours, or perhaps over the past week. You can't go wrong if you stick to what you know to be right in the circumstances.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 23 - Dec. 22)
Tie up loose ends and get trivialities out of the way before you make any more bold moves. You might have bright ideas of your own, but you may be wise to sit back and let others call the shots for a while, at least until your stars have settled down.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 23 - Jan. 20)
Unlooked-for benefits will be an added bonus in all group activities. However, you may prefer the intimacy of one-to-one relationships, which is where the real gains will lie. Meanwhile, your charming manner is paying special dividends at work.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 21 - Feb. 19)
It is difficult to know just where you should turn. If you wish, you may put pressing and important matters on hold and spend your way to happiness. This is without doubt an extravagant phase, but at least you can choose between what is worth it - and what is not.

PISCES (Feb. 20 - Mar 20)
In spite of your doubts, social prospects are bright, so please take the chance to relax, unwind and get a change of scene. Pleasant companionship is all very well, but you may want something more intense. Plus, you will cope well with a temporary increase in the financial pressure. It helps to keep a close eye on the details.

It was Siddaramaiah-led government which had got such a Bill drafted by the Screening Committee, alleges BJP

NAUSHAD BIJAPUR @ Belagavi

THE Congress party was cornered by the BJP legislators during debate on the anti-conversion Bill in the Legislative Assembly on Thursday, when presented with evidence that it was the Congress government led by Siddaramaiah which had got an anti-conversion Bill drafted and cleared by the Screening Committee for the first time in 2016.

When Opposition leader Siddaramaiah disputed Law Minister J C Madhuswamy's claims that it was Congress government which had brought such a Bill drafted by the Screening Committee and placed before the cabinet, Speaker Vishveshwara Hegde Kageri decided to hold a meeting with Siddaramaiah and Madhuswamy to clarify the issue. During the meeting, it came to light that Siddaramaiah had signed the Bill, drafted by the Screening Committee in 2016, and had also asked it to place the anti-conversion Bill before the Cabinet.

Despite several Congress MLAs including M B Patil, Anjali Nimbalkar, Ajay Singh and others, trying to prevent Siddaramaiah from participating in the meeting called by the Speaker, Siddaramaiah decided to go ahead. His claim in the House that the Bill was not placed before the Cabinet was debunked by Madhuswamy, who furnished documents to show the former had indeed signed the Bill drafted by the Screening Committee.

While trying to duck blame for coming up with the draft Bill during his tenure as CM, Siddaramaiah claimed, "A delegation of 'BJP people', led by litterateur Chidananda Murthy, had submitted a memorandum to the BJP government headed by B S Yediyurappa in 2009, suggesting that the government bring an anti-conversion Bill on the lines of the one brought by the Madhya Pradesh Assembly."

This led to a verbal duel between him and Yediyurappa. Minister K S Eshwarappa intervened and hit out at some Congress legislators who were alleging that it was the agenda of the RSS to bring such a discriminatory and anti-people Bill.

"Yes, it is the objective of the RSS and the BJP to bring such a Bill to stop religious conversions in the country which were going on unabated. We (RSS and BJP) will crush those trying to convert Hindus," he said.

Eshwarappa's remarks enraged all the Congress legislators who rushed to the well of the House and opposed the passing of the anti-conversion Bill in the Assembly.

Kumaraswamy accuses Congress of doublespeak

BENGALURU: Former Chief Minister HD Kumaraswamy accused Congress leaders of doublespeak in opposing the contentious anti-conversion Bill. Kumaraswamy said the Congress leaders, who were vehemently opposing the anti-conversion Bill, now stand exposed since they were considering bringing in such a law when they were in power. On Thursday, during the debate on the Bill, the BJP cornered former CM and Opposition leader Siddaramaiah by coming out with documents to show that he had asked for the Bill to be placed before the cabinet in 2016. "The same leaders are now talking against the anti-conversion Bill. The Congress and the BJP are two faces of the same coin. How can such people provide any protection to others? The JDS will continue to oppose it," the JDS leader said. On Congress's padayatra in January to urge the government to start work on the Mekedatu Reservoir project, the former CM said the Congress and the BJP will never be able to implement it. The Congress is taking out a padayatra only for publicity, he said. ENS

Kateel may be on way out, Ravi likely to replace him

DEVARAJ B HIREHALLI @ Bengaluru

THE BJP high command, despite focusing on elections to five states, including Uttar Pradesh, is keeping a close watch on the shifting scenario in Karnataka, leading to a buzz of a change in leadership.

There are also visible signs of anti-incumbency which could be a big factor in the 2023 assembly polls, and since Karnataka has been the party's gateway to the South, the BJP is not likely to leave anything to chance. Party bosses are looking at leaders with the right caste status, and rumours are thick that there could be a change in the organisational setup ahead of the ZP/TP polls.

State BJP president Nalin Kumar Kateel's performance is not rated very high, ever since he assumed office in August 2019, and has become a matter of concern, sources said. He has not been as visibly aggressive as he was in the past, and the BJP think-tank is reportedly having second thoughts about allowing him to complete his three-year term, which concludes in August 2022.

Given the fact that KPCC president D K Shivakumar's performance graph is on the rise, especially in the Vokkaliga heartland where the JDS is appearing to lose ground and BJP is failing to cash in, the saffron party is looking to bring in a Vokkaliga leader as party president. According to sources, Chikkamagaluru MLA and BJP national general secretary C T Ravi is the frontrunner.

"Kateel is BJP national general secretary B L Santhosh's man, and if a change takes place, it will be his choice. Ravi, who is in the good books of Santhosh, would be the natural choice," remarked a BJP Vokkaliga leader. Union minister Bhupendar Yadav, a confidant of PM Narendra Modi and Home Minister Amit Shah, is also likely to have a say, sources said.

Since the Chief Minister is likely to remain from the Veerashaiva-Lingayat community, appointing a leader from any other dominant caste -- Vokkaliga, Backward Class or even Dalit -- as party president makes good political sense, observed another leader. Ravi's recent attack on Vokkaliga compatriot D K Shivakumar is an indication that he is ready to take on rival parties, both on issues and on a personal level. Since the opposition is expected to make the Anti-Conversion bill, Anti-Cow Slaughter law, National Education Policy implementation, and even the Bitcoin scam as a poll plank, Ravi fits in the party's scheme of things. The names of Aravind Limbavali and Sunil Kumar Karkala, from SC and backward communities, are also doing the rounds, but BJP may not appoint them as Congress leader Siddaramaiah has managed to keep these communities' votes intact.

REFER BILL TO JOINT SELECT PANEL, SAYS MLC VISHWANATH

K SHIVA KUMAR @ Mysuru

IN a surprise for the ruling dispensation, BJP MLC A H Vishwanath has come out in the open opposing the anti-conversion Bill, which was passed in the Assembly on Thursday, and accused Chief Minister Basavaraj Bommai of dividing people while going against the tenets of equality preached by 12th century reformer Basaveshwara.

Demanding the government to refer the Bill to a Joint Select Committee, he suggested that the members call on seers, progressive thinkers and other stakeholders on the controversial issue.

Vishwanath said the Veerashaiva-Lingayat faith emerged after many of Basavaeshwara 's followers came together to build a casteless society. But he was unhappy that seers of Lingayat mutts, AHINDA mutts had kept mum on the issue. Grants from the government have prevented them from speaking out in the open, he quipped. Writers and intellectuals too have not expressed their opinion and are more keen on Rajyotsava awards, he added.

Observing that instead of pushing the Bill in haste, the government should tell people about the need for the Act, clear doubts and convince them that it is not with any hidden agenda.

"What was the need to prepare the draft overnight and introduce it in the Assembly?" he asked.

Chief Minister Basavaraj Bommai should not divide society and should follow a democratic process of gathering public opinion, Vishwanatah suggested.

Demands ban on MES

Criticising the Maharashtra Ekikaran Samiti (MES) activists for burning the Kannada flag and disfiguring national icon Sangolli Rayanna, he said that the government should ban the organisation.

Vishwanath also criticised the elected representatives and leaders from Belagavi for not speaking against MES to appease the Marathi-speaking population.

"Have they won only with Maratha votes? Haven't Kannadigas voted for them," he asked.

He hailed the Kannada Chaluvali leaders for protesting against the MES highhandedness and taking the law into their hands.

Bill does not ensure equality: Opposition

SEVERAL Congress legislators denied the BJP members' claims that the Bill was the same which was proposed earlier, but with minor changes. They also raised objections to several stringent clauses in the Bill. Siddaramaiah questioned why the quantum of punishment was more in cases of conversions involving people from the SC and ST communities and said the Bill did not ensure equality for all sections of society.

WINTER SESSION

Chief Minister Basavaraj Bommai intervened to assert that the cases of conversion involving SCs, STs and backward communities were more and they were being exploited as they are socially and financially backward. Unfortunately, such communities are being targeted, he said, adding that the government was keen to stop their exploitation. Hence, a stringent provision has been provided in the Bill in their larger interest, he said. But Siddaramaiah and K R Ramesh Kumar continued to argue with the CM stating that if the government had so much concern for those communities, it should initiate welfare measures to improve their financial and social status and not bring in Bills that aimed at a particular community and section of society.

Responding to some sections of BJP and RSS leaders, who have contended that the population of Christians and Muslims had risen in the last few decades due to conversions, Siddaramaiah said there has been only a small rise of Christian and Hindu population in the state as per the 2001 and 2011 Census. JDS leaders H D Revanna and Bandeppa Kashempur also opposed the Bill and said they would not like the government to pass it stating that it is not in the interest of society.

Christian shrine vandalised in Chikkaballapur village

CHIKKABALLAPUR: A statue of St Anthony, placed in a wooden frame, was vandalised by miscreants at Susaipalya village in Chikkaballapur district on Thursday. Three police teams, led by SP G K Mithun Kumar, have been formed to nab the culprits. Residents noticed the vandalism around 5:30 am on Thursday. Speaking to TNIE, the SP informed that the shrine consists of a statue of St Anthony, covered by a frame, and is encased in glass. It is located near the Rangadhama Lake Bund Road. According to a source, locals who pass by stop to pray in front of the statue. Meanwhile, Susaipalya resident Anthony Daniel lodged a complaint with the Chikkaballapur Rural police, who have registered a case under Sections 153(A), 427, 295, and 120(B) of the IPC, and also under Section 3 of the PDPP Act, 1984. Kumar said that the police will bring those guilty of trying to disturb the peace in the region to book. ENS

Work under way for fixing B'luru drains

ENS @ Belagavi

CHIEF Minister Basavaraj Bommai on Thursday said the government has commenced work on remodelling 842-km stretch of drains in the BBMP limits at an estimated cost of Rs 4,670 crore.

Replying to a question by MLC P R Ramesh during the winter session of the Legislative Council, Bommai explained, "Remodelling of primary and secondary drains in Bengaluru is under way and work on 428 km, of a total of 842 km, is completed. The work on the remaining 413 km will be completed in the coming days."

Drains in the BBMP limits have been divided into nine zones, with a total length of about 842 km, the CM added.

Bommai said he had inspected many drains during the recent rain and asked officials to identify bottlenecks and plan remodelling work. By the next monsoon, most of the issues related to drains will be addressed. He also pointed out that many people had encroached upon drains and constructed houses and big buildings over them. Officials have been duly directed to clear such encroachments.

BJP to discuss overhaul at core committee meet

DEVARAJ B HIREHALLI @ Bengaluru

THE BJP core committee meeting, along with the state's office bearers and executive committee, which will be held in Hubballi on December 28-29, is expected to see the party ranks, under the leadership of national general secretary and Karnataka in-charge Arun Singh, discuss ways to overhaul both the government and the organisation.

Developments over the last three months, especially the results of the recent MLC polls in which the BJP could garner a modest 11 seats, will top the agenda. A report on the party's debacle in Mandya, Belagavi and Hassan, and a victory by a thin margin of votes in Dharwad has already reached the party high command.

In Mandya, the failure on the part of minister Narayana Gowda to fetch votes for the BJP candidate, while the Congress managed to snatch the seat from the JDS, has sparked a debate. Interestingly, the BJP is concerned with the second preferential votes in North Karnataka going in favour of the Congress, while in the Old Mysuru region, they went in favour of JDS, especially in the Mysuru-Chamarajanagar dual-member seat.

Meanwhile, in the Dharwad dual-member seat, which comprised Haveri district voters too, Pradeep Shettar -- younger brother of former CM Jagadish Shettar -- won, though coming in second. Pradeep has already expressed his displeasure on social media, regarding the leadership's failure to convince rebel candidate Mallikarjun Haveri, who garnered over 1,200 votes, to withdraw from the contest.

According to sources, a major reshuffle could also be on the cards, alongside the dropping of under-performing ministers, and especially those who are found to be lacking loyalty to the party. Union minister Bhupendra Yadav too is said to be closely watching the developments in the state and conveying his views to the central leadership.

DKS' new image: Amiable, pan-Karnataka leader

BANSY KALAPPA @ Bengaluru

HE is no longer the brash and tough-talking leader from Kanakapura. Of late, KPCC President DK Shivakumar has adopted a more diplomatic demeanour, and his outreach to detractors within the party has drawn curious comment. The Congress leader has cultivated a more acceptable image, and is working on his relationship with leaders within the party. His latest photographs on Twitter with senior leader M B Patil, a contender for the post of KPCC president, is proof of this image makeover.

Political analyst B S Murthy says that Shivakumar has used the Belagavi session to reach out to Congress leaders of North Karnataka, particularly M B Patil. "The optics of bonhomie between DK Shivakumar and MB Patil come as relief for party workers. DKS is making a conscious attempt to root himself as a pan-Karnataka leader."

Party insiders said Shivakumar has also worked on his relationship with former chief minister Siddaramaiah, and consulted him on all major issues. His relationship with former minister K J George, seen to be close to Siddaramaiah, his visit to MLC CM Ibrahim's house, and attempts at a good relationship with KPCC working resident Satish Jarkiholi are also signs of change.

Political analyst and brand guru Harish Bijoor said, "There sure is a carefully cultivated image that D K Shivakumar presents in Karnataka politics today. Gone is the 'angry young man' image. Gone is the brash and brazen leader. Today, we see a carefully inclusive DKS, a senior political mind seen to work in tandem with the Congress leadership of every age and region. This is a pan-Karnataka DKS, as opposed to a Kanakapura leader. This is timely, as he is positioned to be the next and clear leader of the Congress in Karnataka."

URBAN LOCAL POLLS

Gadag's 'Chaiwala Modi' gets BJP ticket

RAGHOTTAM KOPPAR @ Gadag

A tea seller from Gadag, popularly known as 'Chaiwala Modi', has received a ticket from the BJP to contest elections to the urban local bodies of Gadag-Betageri town. Many partyworkers and businessmen have sought tickets, but it was this tea seller, Chennappa Dyampur, of Ward 23 who got it, thanks to his popularity among residents.

This chaiwala does not have any money to spend on poll campaign, but he is visiting people and offering them hot tea, asking them to vote for him. His friends and family are helping him meet some expenses though. Chenappa has been selling tea near Gadag's Mulgund Naka and Rachoteshwarnagar for the last 25 years. After news of PM Narendra Modi's younger days selling tea spread, people started calling Chennappa as 'Modi'. Two weeks ago, residents of Ward 23 called a meeting to choose their leader in the upcoming ward elections, when Chennappa was unanimously picked. Siddalingeshwar Arali, a resident, said, "We have unanimously selected him and he is our area's Modi. This is a ward election and we consider a leader who can work for us. We are collecting money from all residents to bear expenses for the ULB polls. This 'chaiwala' will herald change in our ward."

"I never thought of joining politics. But people believed in me and I will work for them," Chennappa said.

'40 pc kickback for contractors' stokes row

BELAGAVI: Congress MLC C M Ibrahim on Thursday raked up the issue of '40-per cent commission' made against those in power by the Contractors Association, about which they have also written to PM Narendra Modi. Ibrahim alleged that "contractors are bound to pay 40 per cent kickback to politicians and officials. The Contractors Association has written to PM Modi in this regard". Replying to Ibrahim, Water Resources Minister Govind M Karjol refuted the allegations and demanded that relevant documents be furnished.

Responding to an email from Karnataka, seeking clarification on Bharat Biotech's open vial policy for Covaxin, the Ministry of Health and Family Welfare said this policy is not allowed. Recently, the vaccine manufacturing firm said opened vials of Covaxin need not be discarded immediately, and can be stored at 2 to 8 degrees Centigrade for up to 28 days.

BENGALURU URBAN DISTRICT IS FULLY VAXXED

Area excludes BBMP limits; Vaccination melas, door-to-door campaigns, call reminders contributed to enhancing coverage

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@Bengaluru

BENGALURU Urban is the first district in Karnataka to clock vaccination figures of 129 per cent first dose coverage and 100 per cent second dose coverage. Health Minister Dr K Sudhakar announced on Twitter on Thursday that Bengaluru Urban, excluding Bruhat Bengaluru Mahanagara Palike (BBMP) areas, is the first district in Karnataka to achieve this and congratulated health workers and the district administration for this remarkable feat.

At a press meet, Bengaluru Urban DC J Manjunath said the target was 10,32,000, and first dose coverage of 129 per cent (13,26,255) and second dose coverage of 10,34,184 was achieved.

"The target is based on a projection of the 2011 census. Many people came to Bengaluru Urban from BBMP limits to avoid queues, and also from neighbouring districts of Kolar, Bengaluru Rural and Ramanagara. We covered workers from the industrial areas of Bommasandra, Jigani and others to reach the 100 per cent target," Manjunath said.

Before the drive began, dry runs were conducted and data was collected on the number of government and private hospitals, infrastructure, manpower and beneficiaries. On January 16, the drive took off for health workers, followed by frontline workers on February 2, with vaccination opening up to those 60 years and above, 45 years and above with comorbidities,

> In vaccination melas held routinely, Bengaluru Urban was always leading in terms of coverage. On August 29, we achieved 100 per cent first dose coverage
> J Manjunath, DC, Bengaluru Urban

on March 1. "Paid vaccinations were facilitated between Narayana Health and nearby companies. On May 1, we expanded the drive to cover priority groups such as construction workers, street vendors and garment workers. In vaccination melas held routinely, Bengaluru Urban was always leading in terms of coverage. On August 29, we achieved 100 per cent first dose coverage," Manjunath added.

To reach those who have not received one or two doses, Har Ghar Dastak campaign (door-to-door) vaccination was launched on November 3 and regular meetings were held to monitor the progress. He informed that 8,000 to 10,000 doses are given each day and SMS, calls from the control room and Primary Health Centre staff were made to those who were due for the second dose.

On a question asked about people using a different mobile number for the second dose, causing vaccination to be registered as a new first dose, he said such numbers are miniscule.

As per data shared by the government as of December 23, 7.30am, BBMP's vaccination coverage is below the state average of 75 per cent for two doses. The target population for BBMP has been set at 91,70,000, of which 91 per cent or 83,65,931 first doses have been completed. As for second dose coverage in Palike limits, the figure stands at 74 per cent or 67,92,608.

After Bengaluru is Kodagu, which has achieved 90 per cent second dose coverage, followed by Mandya with 84 per cent. The poorest performing districts are Kalaburagi with 60 per cent, Raichur with 64 per cent, and Haveri and Ballari with 68 per cent.

Send cluster samples for genome sequencing, State told

"AS regards Karnataka, we were told to pay attention to the increase in the number of clusters. We have been told to implement stringent measures in these areas and also to look at containment measures in the clusters," said Arundathi Chandrashekar, Managing Director, National Health Mission, who attended the meeting.

According to a senior doctor from the Technical Advisory Committee, several studies have shown that cluster size is positively related to the presence of individuals with high viral load. "It is important to contain the clusters as the size and duration (how long the cases remain positive) are largely dependent on the viral load and contagiousness. Transmission can occur even in low viral load cases which can go undetected by RAT tests and may need a change of testing strategy with RT-PCRs," he said.

New labs are being considered for faster genome sequencing results | SHRIRAM BN

The Centre has also asked the state to ensure that samples of all cases in clusters are sent for genome sequencing. "Procedures for this have already been put in place. We are also considering involving new labs for faster genome sequencing results. It is being taken into consideration already," Arundathi added. While the Centre has asked states to consider night curfews, restrictions on large gatherings, notifying containment zones and buffer zones in case of clusters of positive cases, Health and Medical Education Minister Dr K Sudhakar told TNIE, "Containment measures like night curfew will be decided based on the prevailing situation and recommendation of the Technical Advisory Committee. As of now, considering the potential threat of large gatherings and public celebrations during New Year's Eve, we have imposed certain restrictions," he said.

Arundathi stressed that the state has been appreciated for keeping the positivity rate at the lowest and also for the pace of vaccination. "We have also been told to increase the speed of vaccination for covering the second dose, focus on districts with poor vaccination rates and increase door-to-door campaigns to achieve this. We are on the right track and are focusing on all of these," she added.

Meanwhile, Dr Sudhakar also said that the state has enhanced surveillance for effective tracing, tracking and quarantine of primary and secondary contacts and triaging of infected persons to ensure early screening and timely treatment. "The critical care infrastructure, including ICU beds and oxygen generation plants, which is augmented significantly during the first and second wave, will be utilised if more cases require hospitalisation. We are prepared," Dr Sudhakar stressed.

First Omicron case in Mysuru

MYSURU: Mysuru reported its first case of Omicron after a 9-year-old girl with a travel history to Switzerland tested positive for the variant, health officials said. The girl, a native of Mysuru, was on a vacation with her parents, and reached Bengaluru on December 19, where they underwent an RT-PCR test. Soon after they reached Mysuru, health officials in Bengaluru alerted the authorities in the city that test results had come positive. Following this, samples were sent for genome sequencing, where it emerged that the girl had contracted Omicron. ENS

33 more Omicron +ve in TN, 5 in Kerala

Total number of cases of the coronavirus variant touches 34 and 29 in these states

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@Chennai/T'Puram

THIRTY-three more people have tested positive for the Omicron variant of the coronavirus in Tamil Nadu, taking the total number of cases in the State to 34. Three of these patients were detected during random sampling in the community, and officials are now trying to trace how they got infected. Meanwhile, five more Omicron cases were confirmed in Kerala on Thursday. So far, 29 cases of the Covid variant have been reported in the State.

Among the 34 cases in Tamil Nadu, 26 were treated in Chennai. Two were in Tiruvannamalai, four in Madurai, and one in Salem, while the last patient was a traveller from Kerala, Health Minister Ma Subramanian told reporters on Thursday. He added that all these people had an 'S' gene drop, a marker of the Omicron variant.

Meanwhile, the 47-year-old (the first in TN confirmed to have contracted the Omicron variant), his niece, and sister were discharged from the Government Corona Hospital at the King Institute, Guindy on Thursday. Though they have tested negative, they will be in home quarantine for a week, the health minister said. Four more of the man's relatives will also be discharged if the result of the retest is negative. The State now has 31 known active Omicron cases.

In Kerala, the new cases included four persons who landed at Kochi airport and one Kozhikode native who came via Bengaluru airport. Kochi airport arrivals comprise two UK returnees, one person from Albania and another passenger from Nigeria who landed on December 14, 15, 19 and 20 respectively.

Of the 29 Omicron cases reported in the State so far, 17 people came from high-risk countries and 10 from low-risk countries. The remaining two were infected via contact.

The Nigeria returnee has been on home quarantine since arriving on December 14 and tested Covid positive on December 18. His father, mother, wife and two children are in his contact list.

The Kozhikode native came on December 19. Their samples were tested at Rajiv Gandhi Centre for Biotechnology. The patients are in various hospitals and their contact tracing is on, Health Minister Veena George said in a statement.

Prevent huge gatherings during festive season: HC to TS

Hyderabad: While dealing with Covid-related batch of petitions, the High Court of Telangana on Thursday directed the State government to issue orders imposing restrictions on large gatherings during the ensuing Christmas, New Year and Sankranti celebrations. The orders should be issued within three days as the new Covid variant Omicron is spreading very fast, it said. A bench of Chief Justice Satish Chandra Sharma and Justice N Tukaramji pointed out that the Delhi and Maharashtra governments have already issued such orders. ENS

CLOSE WATCH

Major cocaine haul ahead of New Year in Hyd

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@Hyderabad

AS the city gets ready to welcome a New Year, police are finding that party animals are stocking up on hard drugs well in advance. Top officials are keeping a close watch on both peddlers as well as prospective buyers and acting immediately on any information received.

In the largest ever haul of cocaine since Telangana was formed, Madhapur police on Thursday, seized 183 grams of cocaine and 44 Ecstasy pills worth ₹26 lakh after they arrested two software employees at their flat in Ramky Towers, Gachibowli. The duo Sravan Kumar and Charan Teja, both aged 24, had one gram of cocaine each on their person which they had purchased from an Arabic tutor named Ashraf Baig, 37.

Acting on a credible tip-off about cocaine consumers, Madhapur police raided the flat of the techies. While Charan Teja is from Bachupally, Sravan hails from Prakasam district in Andhra Pradesh.

Cyberabad Police Commissioner Stephen Raveendra said, "In the process of investigation on the purchase of drugs, Charan and Shravan revealed the tutor's name and confessed that they had purchased the drug from Ashraf. The tutor, who is a resident of Tolichowki, sold each gram for ₹14,000. The Ecstasy pills cost ₹1,500 each.

Receiving a tip-off from the two accused, a Special Operations Team rushed to Tolichowki and nabbed Ashraf Baig and seized 181 grams of cocaine apart from 44 Ecstasy tablets.

The Commissioner added, "Ashraf revealed that he sources the drugs from Goa from a Nigerian national named Zude. Police teams have been deployed to hunt down the main supplier, Zude, from Goa."

Ashraf would always travel by bus to avoid police checks. He never took a flight or train where security checks have increased manifold. He was confident that he could bring his booty to the city through bus journeys, Stephen Raveendra elaborated.

Sub-organisers and peddlers in the city limits are procuring the narcotic substances outside of Hyderabad and selling it to customers at double the rates. Peddlers in Goa appear to be the prime suppliers.

Earlier too, a techie and a businessman were held near ORR while entering the city with drugs procured from Goa.

Six Andhra fishermen hang another upside down, arrested

ENS @Mangaluru

MANGALURU South police have arrested six fishermen hailing from Andhra Pradesh after a viral video showed them hanging a fisherman upside down in a fishing vessel at Old Port, accusing him of stealing their mobile phones. The arrested have been identified as Kondur Polaiah (23), Avul Raj Kumar (26), Karapingara Ravi (27), Pralayakaveri Govindaiah (47) from Nallur, Katingari Manohar (21), Votu Kori Jalaiah (30) from Prakasam district. The victim has been identified as Vaila Sheenu (32) from Prakasam district.

City Police Commissioner N Shashi Kumar said the victim was to join the accused on a fishing voyage in the vessel John Shailesh-2 on December 16. The previous night, the men met over a dinner party. The next morning, on realising that two mobile phones were missing, they suspected and blamed Vaila Sheenu of stealing, took him to the boat and thrashed him. When he pleaded innocence, they hung him upside down.

A few days ago, South police station inspector Lokesh AC received a video on his mobile phone. They started looking for the victim and reached out to his family. By then, the victim had left to Karwar, traumatised by the incident. He returned to Mangaluru and a case was registered.

SECOND FLIGHT TEST OF BALLISTIC MISSILE PRALAY A SUCCESS

BHUBANESWAR: A day after the maiden trial, India conducted the second flight test of indigenously developed conventional surface-to-surface short-range ballistic missile (SRBM) Pralay from Abdul Kalam Island off Odisha coast on Thursday. Defence sources said for the first time, two successive flight tests of a ballistic missile have been conducted successfully on consecutive days. Developed by DRDO, the missile was tested with heavier payload for a different range to prove the precision and lethality of the weapon system. "After the take off, the missile, with a different configuration as compared to the first trial, and carrying more payload travelled along a different trajectory meeting all mission objectives. This was a copy book success," said a defence official. Weighing around five tonne, the missile can carry 1,000 kg warhead and strike targets at a range up to 500 km. ENS

Youth held for robbing armed force personnel

BENGALURU: The Upparpet police have arrested a youth who was involved in a vehicle theft case and had robbed an armed force personnel of his mobile phone. The stolen two-wheeler and the mobile phone have been recovered from Mohammed Asim. Police said the armed force personnel had lodged a complaint with the Upparpet police on December 17 night, stating that two bikers accosted him near Anand Rao Circle and robbed him of his mobile phone. "When questioned, Asim admitted that he had stolen a two-wheeler to commit the robbery with his accomplice. Efforts are on to trace his absconding associate," the police added. ENS

Robbers tie up women, flee with valuables

BENGALURU: Two miscreants barged into a house and decamped with valuables after tying the limbs and gagging a woman and her daughter-in-law. The incident took place in Kannurahalli in Hoskote on Thursday morning. Police said the two robbers threatened to kill the women if they raised an alarm and ransacked the house. They decamped with 200 gram of gold jewellery and other valuables worth Rs 2 lakh. The Hoskote police, who have registered a case, suspect the involvement of known persons to the family. ENS

Two students killed in road accident

Bengaluru: Two college students were killed after a truck hit their scooter in Bannerghatta police station limits on the outskirts of the city on Wednesday. The deceased have been identified as Koushik and Sushma, both residents of Sarakki in JP Nagar. Police said the duo, along with a group of friends, had gone to a restaurant in Bannerghatta on two-wheelers. Around 4.50 pm, they were passing near the Aquarelle Garments factory in Kempanayanakanahalli when a speeding truck brushed against the scooter. Koushik and Sushma fell off the vehicle and sustained serious injuries. "Their friends rushed them to a hospital, but Sushma succumbed on the way while Koushik died at the hospital. The truck driver abandoned the vehicle and fled. He will be nabbed soon," the Bannerghatta police added. ENS

Hubby's death will not save wife from trial: HC

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @Bengaluru

THE Karnataka High Court has ruled that the death of the accused during trial, and before the charges could be framed, will not result in closure of the trial against the wife, who is the co-accused. Justice M Nagaprasanna held that "abatement does not annihilate abetment" for the co-accused, who is accused of abetment under Section 109 of the IPC.

City-based V M Saraswathy moved the court questioning the order passed by the Special Judge to frame charges against her for the offence punishable under Section 13(1)(e), read with 13(2) of the Prevention of Corruption Act, in addition to the offence of abetment, after death of her husband, M Selvakumar, who was the principal offender.

Hearing her plea, the court quashed the order passed by the Special Court to frame charges against the petitioner under the Prevention of Corruption Act. However, the court gave nod to continue trial against her for abetment.

The complaint against the husband of the petitioner was that as Deputy Director (Research), Training Center, Central Coffee Research Institute, Coffee Research Station, Balehonnur, Chikmagalur district, he had amassed assets disproportionate to his known sources of income. The allegation against Saraswathy was that she had abetted her husband to commit the offence for purchase of many moveable and immovable properties in her name out of the ill-gotten money. After the investigation, the CBI filed the chargesheet. But, before the chargesheet could be filed and charges framed, the husband died on March 29, 2017.

Woman, dad present PhD defence on same day

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @T'Puram

IN a rare feat, a father-daughter duo appeared for their PhD open defence at the APJ Abdul Kalam Technological University (KTU) on the same day. Nirmal S and her father Sivarajan K N successfully defended their doctoral thesis at the Thrissur Government Engineering College, where they were pursuing their doctoral research. Interestingly, both had chosen the same discipline and were supervised by the same research guide.

Nirmal, who is working as a guest lecturer at NSS Engineering College, Palakkad, now said working on her PhD alongside her father was a fantastic experience. "As our discipline was power systems, we could complement each other in the research," she said.

Sivarajan, a former KSEB chief engineer, worked in two engineering colleges before enrolling for a full-time PhD programme at the university in 2016. "My only issue was with the computer, which I was able to resolve with the help of my daughter. Now I am an expert in that field as well," he said, beaming with delight.

Jasmin E A, an associate professor at Thrissur Government Engineering College who guided the two, said it was a once-in-a-lifetime opportunity for her to mentor both a father and a daughter.

The intellectually-gruelling open defence session is a requirement for receiving a PhD and is the final step in the doctoral degree process. Both Sivarajan and Nirmal will be awarded PhDs after the university's Board of Governors ratifies the doctorate report submitted by the college.

DELIMITATION AND A POSSIBLE CHANGE IN J&K'S POLITICAL MATRIX

If the objective of a delimitation exercise, the process of demarcation of boundaries of Parliamentary and Assembly constituencies, is to provide equal representation to equal population segments so that no state, political party or community has an undue advantage over others, then Kashmir-based political parties have every reason to be upset over the J&K delimitation commission's draft report. Of the seven additional Assembly seats that will be created following the passage of the J&K Reorganisation Act, 2019, the commission, in its proposals shared with five associate members, has awarded six seats to Jammu and only one to Kashmir. The delimitation panel is carrying out the redrawing of Assembly constituencies on the basis of the 2011 Census and according to it, Kashmir has 56.28% of the Union Territory's population while only 43.71% live in the Jammu region. Given these numbers, Kashmir should have got the greater share of the extra seats but the explanation is that population was not the only factor that was considered. The awarding of six seats to Jammu has the potential to change the political and electoral matrix in favour of the Hindu-dominated region vis-a-vis the Kashmir Valley, where Muslims are in majority. Being greater in number, Kashmir has so far dominated the political landscape, with the chief minister always belonging to the region. The delimitation commission's proposals have already sparked concerns that Mehbooba Mufti could have been the last Kashmiri CM of J&K.

Whether the draft report is biased towards Jammu or not is debatable, but the blame for much of the worries of the Kashmir-based political parties lies with them. Whether it is the National Conference, People's Democratic Party, People's Conference or newbies such as the J&K Apni Party, the politics of all of them has always centred around the Muslim-majority Valley. None of these parties have ever given Jammu due importance, doing little to not only spread their presence in the region but also gain greater acceptance. They were smug in the belief that the higher number of Assembly seats in the Kashmir Valley was good enough to ride to power. If the draft report is accepted, it will force these parties to become truly pan-J&K political entities.

NEEDLESS ATTEMPT TO POLARISE IN KARNATAKA

While the Karnataka Protection of Right to Freedom of Religion Bill, 2021, was passed in the Assembly on Thursday and is yet to pass the Council test, it is being vehemently opposed by the Congress, JD(S), secular groups and minority communities. Odisha was the first state to enact such an anti-conversion law, followed by Arunachal, Gujarat, Madhya Pradesh, Himachal, Jharkhand, Chhattisgarh and Uttarakhand.

Clause 3 of the Karnataka Bill prohibits conversion by misrepresentation, force, fraud, undue influence, coercion, allurement or by promise of marriage. Clause 5 lays down provisions for penalising those contravening the Clause 3 provisions, specifying that they "... will be punished with imprisonment ... for a term of three years but which may extend to five years and shall also be liable to a fine of ₹25,000. Those found to be converting a minor, or a person of unsound mind, or a woman, or a person belonging to the Scheduled Caste or Scheduled Tribe can face imprisonment up to 10 years and are liable to pay fines up to ₹50,000." The Bill also says that those indulging in mass conversions can face a similar jail term and fines up to ₹1 lakh.

The Bill, if enacted, mandates a person seeking conversion to submit a declaration to the office of district magistrate or additional district magistrate and tahsildar, which will be put up on the notice boards calling for objections—which raises privacy concerns and exposes them to threats. Concerns are also being raised over possible misuse of the legislation to target minority community members, especially as Christian groups, active in educational and health services, have been suspected—and targeted—for resorting to conversions. Christians have remained at 2.3% of India's total population through the 2001 and 2011 Censuses. At a time when the pandemic, health, education and the state's economy should have been the government's priority areas, the issue of anti-conversion threatens to needlessly polarise society.

Democracies, already struggling in a world where consensus is mass-manufactured by online bots, are now explicitly turning into elected monarchies—or worse

CATCH 22: THE YEAR THAT WILL HOLD A DECADE

SANTWANA BHATTACHARYA
Resident Editor, Karnataka, The New Indian Express

SOUMYADIP SINHA

Not many would be sorry to see 2021 nearing the finishing line. Personal milestones aside, it would be marked with a thick, ugly red circle on history's calendar. The annus horribilis of our nightmarish times—by global consensus at that, a rare feat for our species. Perhaps 2020 could nudge us on the shoulder and ask about its candidacy. But which is to be designated as the truly terrifying part of the nightmare? Its onset, when you switch from normalcy to a surreal miasma, or the climactic terror that chokes you in your slumber? Or wait ... have we even reached there yet? Hunted down by letters of the Greek alphabet, like the furies had chased Orestes, we are still running, still falling into bottomless chasms. Are we then hurtling towards something even more terrifying? And is all this only a metaphor for something else that's mutating around us? Our lives, our modes of livelihood, our societies, our democracies? On that last score too, we seem to have transited from Delta to Omicron ... everywhere on the planet.

Flip a coin and let it fall anywhere—say, Afghanistan. Its nascent experiment with civil democracy evaporated in an instant as an openly misogynistic, religious fundamentalist group rode in like an army of locusts. If Kabul unsettled the world with regime change, China did it by offering a disturbing spectre of permanence. If things stay the course, Xi Jinping could well become the New Kangxi Emperor, the longest-serving monarch of history. People, prominent or otherwise, may disappear without a notice in that gated colony of mutant Communism, but Xi is not going anywhere. You can't blame the WHO for omitting the Greek letter Xi, and jumping straight to Omicron, to christen a world-conquering force ... that name is already taken.

Draw the circle in closer. Myanmar's unsure date with democracy was called off a fortnight before Valentine's Day, and it was back to doing what it does best—visiting horror on its own people, the non-Buddhist minority in particular, and jailing every democrat in Naypyidaw. Nepal remains in a state of self-experimentation. And in Sri Lanka, it's the Rajapaksa all the way—president, prime minister, foreign minister, you name it. And so on and so forth.

Democracies, already struggling in a world where consensus is mass-manufactured by online bots, are now explicitly turning into elected monarchies—or worse. Supreme leaders and demagogues preside over the fate and future of people. They wield a sharp, double-edged axe: a nationhood that's defined in near-ethnic terms, and then married to religion. Loosely speaking, one blade is meant to threaten the outside world, and the other acts as the weapon of mass destruction internally. But they cut both ways. All non-conforming identities—ethnic, religious or gender-based—are to live in constant peril.

Does any of that ring a bell? It is in the nature of circles to close in on us. Still, in India, an immense struggle is on. Alongside elemental forces that would annihilate democracy, an opposite groundswell too is palpably present. The age of obeisance has ebbed away, and protest is now back as a lingua franca. But a stark asymmetry attends to this. If the people in protest come from big voting communities, they are still able to have their way. The farmers on the Delhi border had that going for them.

> People may disappear without a notice in that gated colony of mutant Communism, but Xi is not going anywhere. You can't blame the WHO for omitting the Greek letter Xi, and jumping straight to Omicron, to christen a world-conquering force ... that name is already taken

Students, activists, comedians... they have less luck, they are expendable, and a habitually carceral regime doubles down on them for not shouting the right slogan, not siding with the right policy, not laughing the right laugh, not choosing the right food, not marrying right. Jonathan Swift would have found plenty of dark material in 2021 to write an updated, Indian edition of his Gulliver's Travels.

Our children can be malnourished and stunted—this is the real pandemic—and an entire future generation of Indians may be housed in the most miserable categories in comparative global charts. But give them eggs, and all hell breaks loose. 'Religious sentiments' are like egg shells. There may be no tangible record to prove large-scale conversion, but an anti-conversion bill is on its way to becoming an act. Would Ambedkar have been penalised for helming mass conversions to Buddhism, if he had happened to do it in 2021?

Through the gloom, the real heroes fought the grim fight—scientists, doctors, researchers. Frankly we didn't know we had so many of them, and all top notch. Asha workers showed us why they were named thus, becoming our frontline antibodies, our vaccine, our oxygen cylinder—at a time when the real thing was nowhere in sight. It's their collective effort that allowed us, and our economy, to breathe the moment the dark clouds lifted a bit.

The economy is tethered to politics, though. And unlike 2021, the coming year will not just be a year—it will hold a decade within itself. Who wins Uttar Pradesh will largely determine who runs the show after 2024. Which way Punjab, Goa and Uttarakhand go will decide what shape the opposition will take. Speaking of shapes, by the end of 2022, there will be two new ones—a temple and a parliament building. That much is a surety, in a future riddled with greys.

GROWING REGIONAL TENSIONS OVER IRAN

P R KUMARASWAMY
Professor at JNU. Teaches contemporary Middle East there

Of late, Israel-Iran shadow-boxing has been getting ominous. If Israel's diplomatic offensive is increasingly focusing on Tehran, the Iranian media is highlighting the Supreme Leader's 2013 statement wherein he observed: "Sometimes the leaders of the Zionist regime even threaten us; they are threatening to strike militarily, but I think they know it, and if they do not know it, they must know that if they make a mistake, the Islamic Republic will destroy Tel Aviv and Haifa." Besides the war of words, four recent developments cause concern.

One, earlier this month, The New York Times reported that Israel carried out two offensive military measures that targeted the Iranian nuclear programme—a centrifuge facility in Karaj in June and a missile base in September, both located close to the Iranian capital. If media reports are correct, Israel carried out these measures after giving a heads-up to the Biden administration.

Two, the official Iranian claims of 'limited progress' in the Vienna talks are not backed by others. The Iranian spin comes against the backdrop of the Biden administration's continued refusal to directly take part in the negotiations aimed at reviving the nuclear deal from which President Trump withdrew in May 2018. Some even suggest that President Biden had asked his National Security Advisor Jake Sullivan to prepare a contingency military plan should the Vienna talks collapse.

Three, during his visit to the US earlier this month, Israeli Defence Minister Benny Gantz reportedly presented a plan to the Pentagon that included a military attack against Iran. According to some officials, the Biden administration did not 'veto' the Israeli plan or the schedule. In his public pronouncements, Gantz was categorical and told the media in Florida that his order would prepare the military "for the Iranian challenge at the operational level." In his assessment, "There is room for international pressure—political, economic and also military—in order to convince Iran to stop its fantasies about a nuclear programme."

Four, several moves in recent weeks indicate closer consolidation among countries fearful of Iran and its regional ambitions. The growing Israel-UAE bonhomie, Saudi willingness to bury the hatchet with Qatar, renewed political engagements among the Gulf Cooperation Council member countries and the visit of Israeli Prime Minister Naftali Bennett to the Emirates are partly aimed at Iran. Israel even sees the mini-Quad (comprising India, Israel, UAE and the US) as a forum to gain wider acceptance of its concerns and responses vis-a-vis Iran.

Indeed, Israel's militant rhetoric against Iran is not new. Since an Iranian opposition group first disclosed Tehran's clandestine nuclear programme in August 2002, Israel had never taken the military option off the table. The spate of American economic and political sanctions against Iran sought to dissuade Israel. The aggressive Israeli campaign against the Iranian nuclear programme, including the assassination of key nuclear scientists and cyberattacks against installations, partly strengthened the American sanctions regime.

> Within weeks of the American withdrawal from the nuclear deal, Iran resumed the enrichment process beyond the limit of 3.67% of Uranium-235 set under the agreement. In April, the IAEA disclosed that Iran had reached an enrichment level of 63%; in short, Iran is inching closer to the 90% needed for a nuclear bomb

At the same time, President Barack Obama was not prepared to continue with a confrontationist policy vis-a-vis Iran and settled for the nuclear deal in July 2015. Though hailed by many countries, the deal was unpopular in the Middle East, especially among countries that felt threatened by Iran's politico-military ascendance and domination. Far from curtailing Iranian hegemony, these countries feared that the Obama administration legitimised it. Hence, countries like Saudi Arabia and Israel felt relieved when President Trump walked out of the nuclear deal in May 2018.

Having invested so much in the nuclear deal and hoping for a complete reversal of the decades of American sanctions, Iran was infuriated by the Trump administration's 'maximum pressure' strategy. Within weeks of the American withdrawal, Iran resumed the enrichment process beyond the limit of 3.67% of Uranium-235 set under the nuclear deal and continued enriching and stockpiling. In April this year, the IAEA disclosed that Iran had reached an enrichment level of 63%; in short, Iran is inching closer to the 90% needed for a nuclear bomb.

Thus, getting the US back into the nuclear deal with an ironclad guarantee against another pull-out is a major demand of Iran, the European powers, Russia and China. Iran also demands a complete removal of all American sanctions guaranteed in the 2014 nuclear deal. At the same time, the Iranian political willingness and technical capability to quickly resume enrichment within weeks after the American pull-out are equally disturbing. Moreover, increasing enrichment capability closer to the bomb-making level undermines its public claims of peaceful intentions.

Without a strong political commitment from all sides, a deal on Iranian nuclear ambition and capability would be a mirage. Meanwhile, the recent belligerent moves only increase the likelihood of heightened tensions. While none, including Israel and Iran, seek open hostilities, the chances of non-traditional military moves in the Persian Gulf are very much on the horizon.

Upright leader

The untimely departure of Congress leader P T Thomas has come as a shock to Kerala. An upright politician, he was a strong supporter of the Gadgil report for the protection of the Western Ghats, and stood his ground even when the church and his own party opposed him. He had to pay a heavy price for it but recent disasters have convinced people that his position was correct.
Jayakumar A V, Kochi

The real nokkukooli

This is with reference to the front-page report Chief whip gets 17 personal staffers more. Job: Nothing (Dec 23). It is shocking to note that when Kerala has no other way but to take loans beyond its limits for providing salaries and pensions, the government is wasting crores this way. This comes at a time when even the salaries of many KSRTC employees have been delayed or not yet paid. This is the real nokkukooli and cannot be justified.
P P Sahadevan, Nileshwar

For Aadhaar, welfare first

The principal aim of Aadhaar should be better implementation of welfare measures. Voter ID checks are secondary. Everyone in India does not have an Aadhaar card, especially in tribal areas, and this is stopping them from availing of government schemes. Timely door-to-door verification of voters is the most effective method of updating electoral rolls and ensuring accuracy of voter data.

Valid questions

Your editorial Address poverty, education to curb child marriage (Dec 23) rightly pointed out the problems with the recent legislation and raised valid questions. If a debate is allowed in Parliament, more views can be evolved in accordance with the questions highlighted in your editorial.
S Anantharaj Abraham, Chennai

Marriage sacrosanct

Your editorial highlights the poor implementation of the existing child marriage law. The proposal to increase the age of women to 21 is laudable despite the questions raised. Marriage should not only be a decision for the entire life—it is considered sacrosanct as per our culture—but the law has to also consider the biological/health aspects and of course the effect on population. The main problem is, when child marriage is still rampant in our country, increasing the age to 21 will only be an academic exercise in the absence of strict implementation by state governments.
R Kasthurirangan, Bengaluru

The beautiful lion

The article Early Narasimha sculptures from Karnataka (Dec 23) makes for interesting reading. One of His benign forms is Yoga Narasimha. He is regarded as a saviour of devotees in distress as pointed out in the Sri Lakshmi Narasimha Karaavalambam by Adi Shankaracharya. Prahalada was a devout bhakta and later Vibheeshana was an embodiment of saranaagati or total surrender at His Lotus Feet in the Rama avatar. This shows that the Paramaatmaa Sriman Narayanan will not ignore the pious prayers presented to Him by a Jeevaatmaa irrespective of caste, creed, status, etc. Of the 10 popular avatars, it is interesting to note that Narasimha is considered very beautiful and is popularly known as Azhagiya Singar (beautiful lion) in Tamil Nadu.

A loss for DMK, Stalin

The passing away of Shanmuganathan, personal secretary to former chief minister Karunanidhi, must be a significant loss to the DMK and to the current CM Stalin and his family.
In 2006, when I was working with a leading publication group in Chennai, we brought out a special issue on Mr Karunanidhi. When our team visited his house at Gopalapuram to have the book released by him, it was Shanmuganathan who received us cordially and helped us shed our nerves.

Haridwar hate speech under police scanner

Outrage after Dharma Sansad video goes viral, cops register case for acts prejudicial to maintenance of harmony

It is a matter of shock, shame and concern for us that someone is using such words against a man like former Prime Minister Manmohan Singh, who is the walking manifestation of a gentleman not only in India but the entire world. It is sad that such vitriolic events are held at the bank of Maa Ganga

Harish Rawat, Congress

The Bharatiya Janata Party or any of its workers and leaders have nothing to do with such things (inflamatory comments). The Bharatiya Janata Party has always believed in the concept of 'Sabka Sath Sabka Vikas' and it practises a culture of 'Sarvdharm Sambhav' as is laid out in our Sanatan Dharma

Manvir Singh Chauhan, BJP

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @ Dehradun

VIDEO of anti-minority comments made by participants at a three-day Dharma Sansad in Haridwar evoked widespread outrage and condemnation, following which the Uttarakhand Police registered a case on Thursday evening.

Several seers made inflammatory speeches at the Dharma Sansad, held from December 17 to 19, and called for killing members of the minority community. Trinamool Congress national spokesman Saket Gokhale and local resident Gulbahar Khan lodged separate complaints in this regard at Jwalapur police station in Haridwar.

"A case has been registered in the matter and the investigation is on," said Rajendra Kathait, in-charge of Jwalapur P.S. The case has been registered under IPC Section 153 A (promoting enmity between different groups on grounds of religion, race, place of birth, residence, language, etc., and doing acts prejudicial to maintenance of harmony.) According to information available, controversial former chief of Shia Waqf Board of UP, Waseem Rizvi, who recently converted to Hinduism and became Jitendra Narayan Singh Tyagi, has been named in the FIR. Other names, if any, were not known till late evening.

The 'Dharam Sansad' was organised by Yati Narsinghanand Saraswati, head priest of a temple in Ghaziabad who has several cases registered against him. At the religious event, he called for war against Muslims and urged Hindus to take up weapons to prevent a Muslim becoming prime minister in 2029. "The war will be won by those with better weapons. Shashtramev jayate (Let weapons win)," he said. Narsinghanand also made the audience take a pledge stating, "We will die for our dharma and, if need be, we will kill for it."

Dharamdas Maharaj, a seer from Patna, targeted former PM Manmohan Singh, saying "I wish I was an MP there holding a revolver; I would have become Nathuram Godse and pumped all the six bullets into him inside Parliament".

A similar pledge to making India a "Hindu Rashtra" and to "fight, die and, if needed, kill" was taken at another event organised by the Hindu Yuva Vahini's Delhi wing on Sunday.

Call against Christmas

Dehradun: At the Dharma Sansad, some of the seers also warned Haridwar district administration against allowing Christmas celebrations in hotels and commercial establishments in the district. In a veiled threat, Anand Swaroop Maharaj of Sambhavi Dhaam said if people and hotels in Haridwar celebrated Christmas, then they would be responsible for their properties. He warned to "wage a war far scarier than the 1857 revolt". However, police assured hoteliers and restaurant owners of maintaining law order.

Priyanka Gandhi Vadra addresses the media in New Delhi | SHEKHAR YADAV

Priyanka alleges foul play in Ayodhya land issue

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @ New Delhi

ALLEGING that BJP leaders and Ram Mandir trust officials are looting money donated by people, Congress general secretary Priyanka Gandhi Vadra on Thursday sought a Supreme Court-led inquiry into the land deals around the Ram temple in Ayodhya.

She said the money from the Ram Mandir Trust is being misused to benefit government officials and members of the BJP and RSS. "So, we have a piece of land, half of it is going for ₹8 crore, the other half is going for slightly more than ₹2 crore at the same time, approximately. Five minutes later, this piece is sold for ₹18.5 crore to the trust, which means, the trust is paying ₹8 crore plus ₹18.5 crore for a piece of land, which is probably worth a little more than ₹2 crore," she told the media.

On a question about the announcement of an inquiry by the UP government, she said the court could perhaps even suo moto intervene because this matter is about the faith of millions. Also, millions of people, who are not necessarily very well off, have given their savings to this trust.

She further said that land from SCs, which is not allowed to be sold, has also been illegally bought by some officers and then sold to the trust. "Land has been illegally taken for this purpose by some officers. Basically, what is happening is that in the area all around the Ram mandir, people from BJP, office bearers from BJP, workers of BJP and RSS, some of the trustees clearly and some big officials of BJP are buying and selling land to for their own benefits and using the trust money for this purpose," she alleged.

Sena's Chor Bazar at BJP's Hindutva

Mumbai: After Union Home Minister Amit Shah's recent remark that Uddhav Thackeray's Maharashtra government has compromised with Hindutva, Shiv Sena has hit back. In the party's Marathi mouthpiece Saamna, Sena called BJP's Hindutva 'Chor Bazaar', a form of Hindutva that has been used to grab poor people's lands and make money. Referring to allegations of foul play in Ayodhya land deals, the Sena mouthpiece said, "If anyone is calling this Hindutva, then we need to prostrate before them with folded hands. For the BJP, money and land is the main goal. They have nothing to do with Hindutva."

Covishield third shot effective against Omicron, claims SII

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @ New Delhi

A three-dose course of AstraZeneca's Covid-19 vaccine, available in India under the brand name Covishield, is effective against the newest variant Omicron, the pharmaceutical major said on Thursday, citing data from an Oxford University study.

Covishield, produced by Serum Institute of India, is India's highest used Covid-19 vaccine. Over 124 crore doses of this have been administered in the country so far.

Significantly, the evidence emerges ahead of an all important meeting of India's top advisory panel on immunisation to deliberate the need of booster or additional doses in the local context, especially in the wake of the Omicron scare.

Findings from the study, yet to be published in a peer-reviewed medical journal, match those from rival vaccines such as Pfizer-BioNtech and Moderna, which had also found that a third dose of their shots raises vaccine efficacy.

The study on AstraZeneca's vaccine Vaxzevria demonstrated that after a three-dose course, neutralising levels against Omicron were broadly similar to those against the Delta variant after two doses. The firm said that researchers at the Oxford University laboratory, who carried out the study, were independent from those who had worked on the vaccine with AstraZeneca.

"As we better understand Omicron, we believe we will find that T-cell response provides durable protection against severe disease and hospitalisation," Mene Pangalos, head of AstraZeneca's biopharmaceuticals R&D, said. Antibody levels against Omicron after the booster shot were higher than antibodies in people who had been infected with and recovered naturally from Covid-19, the company said.

Results of the study are based on analysis of samples from those infected with Covid, those vaccinated with two doses and a booster, and those previously infected with other variants of concern. It also included samples from 41 people given three doses of this vaccine. Earlier, however, AstraZeneca had said it was working on a vaccine specifically for Omicron.

India favours return of democracy in Myanmar

MAYANK SINGH @ New Delhi

FOREIGN Secretary Harsh Vardhan Shringla, on his two-day visit to Myanmar, expressed India's interest in the return of democracy in the neighbouring country.

According to a statement from the Ministry of External Affairs, Shringla "Emphasised India's interest in seeing Myanmar's return to democracy at the earliest; release of detainees and prisoners; resolution of issues through dialogue; and complete cessation of all violence." This is the first high-level visit from India after Myanmar's military evicted the democratically elected government of Aung San Suu Kyi in a coup on February 1.

The ministry added that Shringla called on the chairman of Myanmar's administrative council and other senior representatives and held meetings with members of civil society and political parties, including the National League for Democracy. He is scheduled to meet Myanmar-based ambassadors and UN representatives.

Shringla reaffirmed India's consistent support to the ASEAN initiative and expressed hope that progress would be made in a pragmatic and constructive manner, based on the five-point consensus, added the ministry.

"As a democracy and close neighbour, India has been involved in the democratic transition process in Myanmar and in this context has worked with various stakeholders in developing capacities on democratic systems and practices. India proposes to renew these efforts for Myanmar to emerge as a stable, democratic, federal union in accordance with the wishes of the people of Myanmar." MEA stated.

Approximately, India shares a 1700 km border with Myanmar. Developments in that country have a direct impact on India's bordering regions.

Districts to oversee containment measures

RAJESH Bhushan also asked states to promptly notify containment zones and create buffer zones to isolate new clusters of Covid positive cases.

On testing and surveillance, states were asked to keep a close and strict watch on the number of Delta and Omicron cases in all districts, case positivity on a day-on-day and week-on-week basis, the doubling rate and emerging clusters.

In addition, states were directed to ensure door-to-door case search in containment areas and to test all cases of severe acute respiratory as well as influenza-like illnesses, apart from vulnerable and comorbid people.

The latest guidelines say that local containment measures are to be put in place by the district administration if the test positivity rate goes beyond 10% or occupancy of oxygenated beds crosses 40 percent.

NIA finds LeT hand in Darbhanga train blast case

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @ New Delhi

THE National Investigation Agency (NIA) on Thursday filed a charge sheet against five Uttar Pradesh residents in the Darbhanga bomb blast case. The agency stated that the terror attack was planned in Pakistan and the five accused were terrorists of Lashkar-e-Taiba.

The charge sheet, filed before a special court in Patna, named Mohd Nasir Khan alias Nasir Malik, Imran Malik, Saleem Ahmed alias Haji Saleem, Kafil Ahmad alias Kafil and Iqbal Mohammed alias Iqbal Kana as accused under Sections 120B, 468 and 471 of the Indian Penal Code, Sections 3, 4 and 5 of the Explosive Substances Act, read with Sections 16, 17, 18, 18B, 20, 23, 38, 39 and 40 of the Unlawful Activities Prevention Act. Kana, originally from Uttar Pradesh, is presently in Lahore.

In June, a blast took place at Darbhanga railway station. A few days later, the case was transferred from Bihar Police to NIA. The agency's investigation revealed that LeT operatives had planned to set ablaze a long-distance train by placing improvised explosive devices so that the whole train catches fire. The terrorists had foreseen huge casualties.

Hafeez Iqbal alias Kana, the Pakistan-based handler was instrumental behind the operation and instructing the other terrorists who were in India.

Srinagar church to celebrate Christmas after 35 yrs of solitude

FAYAZ WANI @ Srinagar

DAYS ahead of Christmas, there was good news for Christians of Srinagar. The renovated 125-year-old St Luke's Church was reopened on Thursday and bells started ringing over there after 35 years.

The church on the foothills of the Shankaracharya hillock in Dalgate area of uptown Srinagar, was virtually reopened by J&K Lt Governor Manoj Sinha. Built by Dr Ernest and Dr Arthurnew in 1896, the church was in bad shape, with the structure having suffered damages. Restoration work worth ₹70 lakh was undertaken by J&K Tourism Department under the Smart City Project in last year. Under this project, prominent religious places would be renovated keeping in view their heritage aspect.

A Tourism Department official said the church was closed for 35 years and prayers were not offered there. "One of the components of the Smart City project is upgradation of shrines, temples and churches. We are restoring all prominent religious places in Srinagar." Another official said the material used for upgradation was the same that was used to build the original structure.

According to Reverend Vino Kaul, associate priest of All Saints Church Srinagar, the St Luke's Church was open till 1986-87 and prayers were held every morning. Until 1986, a British priest was available for worshippers at the church.

Suhaib Naqashbandi, an architect involved with the project, said it is a valuable initiative by the government. "The structural components of the church were damaged. The roof was leaking." Suhaib said the focus was on structural stability. "After the structural components were restored, other works were undertaken. The electrification work was redone," he said.

With its renovation and restoration, the St Lukes Church is all set for hosting the prayers on Christmas this year.

Government issues warning on free online education

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @ New Delhi

THE Union education ministry on Thursday sounded an alarm on claimed free online content and courses being offered by several ed-tech companies for school students, saying that in many instances, they were luring vulnerable families into paying for the services unintentionally.

In an advisory, the ministry cautioned that the offer of free services promised by some companies has to be carefully evaluated. "It has come to the notice of the Department of School Education and Literacy that some ed-tech companies are luring parents in the garb of offering free services and getting the electronic fund transfer mandate signed or activating the auto-debit feature, especially targeting the vulnerable families," it said.

It has urged people to avoid the automatic debit option for payment of subscription. It asked people to read the terms and conditions before acknowledging the acceptance of software or devices as their IP address and personal data may be tracked.

Rawat ko gussa kyun ata hai?

Veteran leader's tendency to throw tantrums in bid to sideline rivals clear again, say critics

VINEET UPADHYAY @ Dehradun

Political PULSE

EVERYBODY in poll-bound Uttarakhand appears sure why Harish Rawat, the Congress campaign in-charge, is upset. Yet nobody knows what he is up to. The former CM chose Twitter to blow off some steam. Among many things, he was dismayed at being "left to swim with his hands tied in the sea of elections with crocodiles around."

The indication was clear: he is upset with rivals within his party, and that he is unable to do much about it. Rawat's self-lamentation came almost a week after his posters were removed from Rahul Gandhi's rally in Dehradun.

"Those who cannot read the writing on the wall, no one can make them read. I know the people have this faith in me. I don't even want any position," said Rawat commented.

Interpretations of his remarks have been swift and sharp. "At present, he is the one who can win against the BJP. What is happening in the state is that the Pritam Singh camp has won over Devendra Yadav, Uttarakhand in-charge of the Congress. Neither Pritam nor Yadav wants Rawat as the CM. Nor would they like to see any role for him in ticket distribution. He is being cautiously sidelined," says Jai Singh Rawat, a political analyst.

"There is definitely a rift within the party which has now come out in the open. Everybody is awaiting some result from a meeting of the state leaders with the high command," said a party insider.

PCC chief Ganesh Godiyal said he was aware that many in the organization are busy creating groups within the party, which was not a good sign. "We'll soon set things right with the permission of the high command. This came to my notice earlier and I have shared this with senior leaders in Delhi. It will be sorted soon."

Meanwhile, Rawat has been trying to project himself as the CM candidate, much against the central leadership's wish to contest the assembly polls under "collective leadership."

His critics say Rawat has always tried to eliminate his competition. "He created troubles for ND Tiwari. In 2012, he worked against Vijay Bahuguna and then became a rival of senior leader Indira Hridayesh. Now, Pritam Singh is a threat to him," said a political analyst.

Voices supporting Rawat's candidature for the party's CM face have also emerged. These include Govind Singh Kunjwal, former speaker of the Uttarakhand Assembly.

Harish Dhami, Congress MLA from Dharchula, also supports Rawat as CM.

'Have concern like Rawat, but hopeful of solution'

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @New Delhi

AHEAD of a meeting of Uttarakhand Congress leaders with former party chief Rahul Gandhi, Uttarakhand Congress president Ganesh Godiyal on Thursday said he shares feelings of party's campaign chief Harish Rawat but hoped things will be sorted out in a day or two in consultation with the party high command.

This comes as the state Congress leaders will meet top leadership in Delhi to iron out differences ahead of elections in the state.

Commenting on Rawat's tweet where he cited non-cooperation from high command and that he feels like quitting, Godiyal said: "I also feel this and not today but for quite some time. But my style is to give the person in question enough time to correct himself."

He further said that the organisation is aware of the brewing trouble in the state unit and the process to address it has also been underway.

"If they were addressed earlier there would not have been a tweet like this. We will meet party general secretary KC Venugopal and also Rahul Gandhi if necessary and put things before them. I hope a solution will be found," he said.

EC wants strict compliance on candidate's crime records

NEW DELHI: The Election Commission will keep close monitoring on compliance of guidelines surrounding political candidates having criminal antecedents during the upcoming state polls.

Earlier, during August this year, the Supreme Court had said that political parties have to publish information regarding criminal antecedents of candidates on the homepage of their websites.

The poll panel has started visiting the poll bound states for review of election preparedness and it has already held meetings in Punjab and Goa.

CEC Sushil Chandra said that every voter should be well informed what are the credentials of the candidates once the nominations are filled.

"If they have got criminal records, that has to be published by the candidates through newspapers, TV, at least three times (before polling)," he added said. ENS

ALLAHABAD HC JUDGE CALLS TO DEFER UP POLL

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @Lucknow

IN a major observation, the Allahabad High Court on Thursday urged the Election Commission of India and Prime Minister Narendra Modi to consider postponing the upcoming Uttar Pradesh Assembly elections in view of rising Covid-19 cases.

The court also requested the poll body to direct political parties not to conduct public rallies to avoid potential virus spread due to the emergence of the Omicron variant.

Jaan hain toh Jahaan hain (while there is life, there is hope), the single-judge bench of Justice Shekhar Yadav observed. "Election rallies of political parties should be banned to save the public from the third wave of Corona in the assembly elections to be held in UP. They should be asked to campaign through TV and newspapers. Strict steps should be taken to stop the election meetings and rallies of the parties. Also consider postponing the election, because if there is life, then there is a world."

PM spins poll narrative on cow, pitches BJP as its protector

NAMITA BAJPAI @Lucknow

PAVING way for a strong narrative on 'gau rakhsha' (cow protection) in Uttar Pradesh, Prime Minister Narendra Modi called it a matter of pride for him and the BJP while the talk of it a sin for Opposition.

The BJP-led state government took pride in nurturing and protecting the cows, Modi said in his second visit to his constituency in 10 days. He was in Varanasi earlier to inaugurate the Kashi Vishwanath Corridor on December 13.

"Some people consider it a sin to talk about the cow. It could be a sin for them but for us cow is revered and equivalent to our mother. Those making jokes on cows, buffaloes and mocking at them forget that the livelihood of at least eight crore people in the country depend on them," the PM after launching and laying foundation stone of total 27 welfare and development projects worth ₹2,095 crore.

PM Narendra Modi receives a memento from UP CM Yogi Adityanath in Varanasi | PTI

"Milk production in India has increased by about 45 per cent during six-seven years. Today, India produces milk worth ₹8.5 lakh crore annually and it stands out to be about 22 per cent of the world's milk production. UP is not only the largest milk producing state in India, it's also ahead in expansion of dairy sector," he added.

Modi also laid the foundation stone of the Banas Dairy Sankul at the UP State Industrial Development Authority Food Park in Karkhiyaon. He also digitally transferred ₹35 crore bonus to the bank accounts of more than 1.7 lakh milk producers associated with Banas Dairy.

The PM launched another broad side on the opposition over law and order and the patronage allegedly given to mafia and criminals. The dictionary of some opposition parties contained "mafiavad" and "parivarvad", but "for us, the priority is 'sabka saath, sabka vikas'," he asserted.

Bill to seek damages for arson gets nod in MP House

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @Bhopal

THE Madhya Pradesh Assembly passed on Thursday a Bill which provides for recovering from the protestors/rioters, the damages caused by them to public and private properties during protests, strikes, bandhs and communal riots.

The Lok Evam Niji Sampati Ka Nuksan Nivaran Evam Nusksani Ki Vasuli Bill was passed with voice vote sans any debate amid walkout by the opposition Congress members.

Once the Governor gives his assent, Madhya Pradesh will become the third BJP-ruled state after Uttar Pradesh and Haryana to have such a law.

The Bill provides for setting up a tribunal, with retired civil judge and retired secretary level bureaucrat, to determine the compensation for the damages caused to properties.

Those seeking compensation have to apply within 30 days of their loss. If the sum isn't deposited within 15 days of the tribunal declaring the award, then the district administration will have the power under the proposed law to confiscate/attach and auction them.

The tribunal order can be challenged only in the HC within 90 days of the declaration of the award.

MAHA CLEARS SHAKTI ACT TO CURB SEX CRIMES

SUDHIR SURYAWANSHI @ Mumbai

TO curb crime against women and children, the Maharashtra Assembly on Thursday passed the Shakti Criminal Laws (Maharashtra Amendment) Bill that provides for stricter punishment, including death penalty. The Bill also provides of speedy trial in such cases.

The Bill, modelled on the Disha Act of Andhra Pradesh, was tabled in the Assembly by home minister Dilip Walse Patil. It was first introduced in the House during the winter session last year, but sent to a joint select committee. "The all-party joint select committee called 13 meetings over the Bill and consulted various organisations, NGOs, officers and all other stakeholders," he added. As per the bill, every district will have special fast-track court for trial. "Besides, there will be public prosecutors and dedicated police squad to probe this matter."

As per the Bill, the probe in crime cases against women and children will have to be completed within 15 days and the trial within 30 days. The perpetrators will be punished with imprisonment not less than ten years and may extend to the remainder of natural life or with death sentence in cases deemed 'heinous'. The bill also provides for punishment of one to three years in prison and a fine of ₹1 lakh for lodging a false complaint of sexual assault.

IED could have been used in blast

THE blast took place around 12.15 pm in a toilet on the second floor of the court complex. The explosion was so powerful that the roof and the walls of the washroom collapsed. An iron grill flew in the air and fell on the vehicles parked below, smashing the window panes some cars. The use of IED in the blast is suspected. The court was not crowded as usual on Thursday since the lawyers were on strike.

A high alert has been sounded in the sensitive border state, which is going to polls early next year. The Centre has sought a report from the state government. Two separate teams of the NIA and NSG have also reached the spot.

Punjab CM Charanjit Singh Channi said anti-national elements are trying to destablise the state ahead of polls, while home minister S S Randhawa blamed "external forces".

Maharashtra government enforces 'double cover'

During the winter session of the Maharashtra assembly, the state government enforced 'double cover' in view of the Omicron threat. As per the central government norms, a person travelling within India or going to mall or any public place should be either fully vaccinated or at have negative RT-PCR test report in past 48 hours. But at Vidhan Bhavan of Maharashtra, where the winter session is on, both the norms have been made compulsory for all MLAs, ministers, officers and media persons. They should be fully vaccinated and have RT-PCR negative report as well. Only then are they are allowed to enter the Vidhan Bhavan premises. Incidentally, Maharashtra on Thursday reported 23 new cases of the Omicron variant of coronavirus, highest in a single day so far.

Panel proposes changes to fast-track insolvency

Suggests NCLT to accept or reject resolution plan within 30 days

DIPAK MONDAL @ New Delhi

THE Central government constituted Insolvency Law Committee (ILC) has proposed a number of changes in the Insolvency and Bankruptcy Code (IBC) to enable faster closure of the corporate insolvency resolution process (CIRP).

One of the key changes that the committee has suggested in its draft proposal is to have a fixed time period of 30 days for the adjudicating authority to accept or reject the resolution plan submitted by the successful resolution applicant.

The law committee noted that the approval of a resolution plan that has already been approved by the committee of creditors (CoC) should not be inordinately delayed. "Such delays go against the objective of the Code to provide value-maximising outcomes for stakeholders," says the Insolvency Law Committee.

It has also proposed changes in the law to enable quicker admission of cases in NCLT. For this they have suggested that the NCLT would only be required to consider information utility-authenticated records as evidence of default where insolvency applications have been filed by financial creditors. It has also proposed that financial creditors should submit only IU-authenticated records to establish default.

Information Utilities (IUs) are entities which store information about debtors – their financial liabilities, transactions, defaults, security interest etc.

Closure of cases under IBC takes much longer with average time of 467 days against the 330 days prescribed under the Code.

Among other changes proposed include a provision of closure of voluntary liquidation process before dissolution of the company if there arise business opportunities that can make the company profitable or viable.

The committee has also proposed that proceedings against such avoidance transactions (fraudulent transactions) may continue even after the completion of the resolution process. Besides, the threshold for the look-back period (for avoidance transactions) may be changed from the date of commencement of CIRP to the date of filing of the application for initiation of CIRP.

"TPEML has been incorporated to manufacture, design, develop all kinds of services related to electric vehicles/ electric mobility, hybrid electric vehicles of all kinds and all descriptions for carrying passengers or other personnel, whether propelled, moved, drawn or assisted by means of electricity, battery, solar energy, or any other power devices whatsoever," Tata Motors said in a regulatory filing.

At present, Tata Motors, with a portfolio of 3 EV models, controls over two-third of India's small but fast-growing electric passenger vehicles market. In October this year, the automaker had unveiled its plans to invest to the tune of $2 billion in its EV business over the next five years during which they aim to have a portfolio of 10 EVs. US-based private equity investor TPG Capital and others have already committed investment of over ₹7,500 cr in Tata's EV subsidiary.

Tata's advancement in the EV business comes at a time when other carmakers are working to launch battery run four-wheelers in India. Earlier in the month, Hyundai said that it is planning to invest ₹4,000 crore for R&D towards the expansion of its battery electric vehicle portfolio.

Govt to tweak GST Act to let firms use GSTN data

ENS ECONOMIC BUREAU
@ New Delhi

THE Centre is working to bring changes in the GST Act so that companies can utilise data stored with GST Network to increase their business.

"We suggested that anything that is on GST as an invoice should automatically be gone to TReDS as well. Then it can be used on TReDS to finance receivables and so on. So, that was the recommendation of the committee, and I am very happy to tell you it was accepted by the government," Jayant Sinha, Chairperson, Parliament Standing Committee on Finance, said on Thursday.

He was speaking at the Assocham e-summit on 'Non-Banking Finance Companies & Infrastructure Financing: Transforming the Financial Lending Landscape'.

He added that as the GSTN (GST Network) does not enable the usage of data within GSTN for any other purpose, the government has to change the GST Act through legislation.

"Public platforms such as UPI and Aadhaar are very important platforms. Even then, for us to leapfrog, we have to do more in terms of public platforms," Sinha said.

However, he said, any change will need statutory backing through legislation. So, there is a need to change not only the central GST Act but all the state GSTN Acts to enable GSTN invoices to automatically get on to TReDS or other platforms, he added. TReDS is a platform that facilitates discounting of invoices for MSMEs from corporate buyers through multiple financiers.

He said GST is fast becoming the commercial backbone of this country, and the government is doing all the necessary changes that will be required to support the businesses.

RBI defers card tokenisation for digital payment for six months

ENS ECONOMIC BUREAU
@ New Delhi

RESERVE Bank of India on Thursday has extended the deadline for card tokenisation by six months till June 30, 2022 on the request of industry.

"In light of various representations received in this regard, we advise as under: a) the timeline for storing of CoF data is extended by six months, i.e., till June 30, 2022; post this, such data shall be purged; and b) in addition to tokenisation, industry stakeholders may devise alternate mechanism(s) to handle any use case (including recurring e-mandates, EMI option, etc.) or posttransaction activity (including chargeback handling, dispute resolution, reward / loyalty programme, etc.) that currently involves / requires storage of CoF data by entities other than card issuers and card networks," the central bank said in a circular.

Tokenisation refers to the replacement of credit and debit card details with an alternate code called 'token'. A token is unique for each card.

In order to make digital payment more secure, the RBI has formed a new rule which said that all merchants and payment gateways have to use encrypted tokens to carry out transactions. RBI has asked all merchants and payment gateways to delete sensitive customer data available at their end.

This was scheduled to come into effect on January 1, 2022.

IOC to invest ₹9,028 cr for new crude pipeline

ENS ECONOMIC BUREAU
@New Delhi

STATE-OWNED oil refiner Indian Oil Corporation (IOC) on Thursday informed that it is going to invest ₹9,028 crore for a new crude oil pipeline system with a nameplate capacity of 17.5 MMTPA from Mundra (Gujarat) to Panipat (Haryana). Under this project, Indian Oil will also build 9 crude oil tanks of 60,000 KL each at Mundra, which, apart from meeting operational requirements, would also help in enhancing crude oil storage capacity in the country. "The total estimated cost of the project is ₹9,028 crore. The Indian Oil Board, at its meeting held on December 20, 2021, has approved the investment proposal," said the IOC in a statement.

The purpose of the company is to expand the Panipat refinery from 15 MMTPA to 25 MMTPA along with the installation of polypropylene unit and catalytic dewaxing unit with targeted completion in the second quarter of Financial Year 2024-25.

"The new pipeline system and crude oil tank storage would help in meeting the enhanced need of crude oil requirement due to the expansion of the Panipat refinery. The crude oil pipeline project is expected to be completed in synchronisation with the commissioning of Panipat refinery expansion," informed IOC.

Indian Oil operates a network of more than 15,000 km long crude oil, petroleum product and gas pipelines and, as a pioneer in oil pipelines in the country, manages one of the world's largest oil pipeline networks.

Zee stock sees high volume trades as analysts upbeat on long-term potential

RAM SAHGAL @ Mumbai

EVEN as brokerages upgraded the Zeel stock a day after the company inked a merger deal with Sony Pictures' subsidiary, heavy volumes and delivery-based trades were witnessed on the secondary market.

Delivery to traded quantity stood at 1.62 crore shares, the highest in absolute terms in three months, on December 22. On Thursday, the delivery percentage was 35%, according to exchange provisional data, which showed that of the 2.6 crore shares traded, over 92 lakh were delivered.

The Zee-Sony deal is subject to regulatory, shareholder and other customary approvals.

At around ₹340-level, the share has already doubled from a 52 -week low of ₹166.8 on August 21. The finalisation of the merger talks between Zee and Sony Pictures has resulted in some profit taking on the stock but brokerages remain upbeat on the long-term prospects of the merged entity once the deal is approved.

Citi and CLSA each maintained a buy rating on the stock with the latter noting that valuations could return to historical highs of 30 times P/E (price to earnings) when the "deal is sealed."

CLSA has a price target of ₹415 on the stock, implying around 22% upside from the current level. Noting Sony's ability to leverage large scale opportunities in the Indian media space, Motilal Oswal has upgraded the stock to a buy with a target price of ₹425. Citi has a target price of ₹395 and lays stress on monitoring how Invesco and other key institutions vote on the deal.

Even before the brokerage put out their calls, investors thronged the Zee cash counter on the secondary market, trading 7.06 crore shares, the second-highest by number in 3 months. Of the traded quantity, 1.62 crore were delivered, the highest in three months, on December 22. The delivery to traded quantity was a robust 23%.

Vishal Wagh, research head, Bonanza Portfolio, expects further profit booking, given the recent run up, before the stock begins "climbing higher" and testing the 52-week high of ₹378.7 on December 15.

With the stock coming under ban on the derivatives segment of stock exchanges Wednesday and Thursday, punting had shifted to the cash market, going by the "hefty" traded volumes, said Hormuz Maloo, director, AFco Investments.

RBI imposes penalty of ₹1 cr on Mobikwik and Spice Money

New Delhi: Reserve Bank of India on Thursday imposed penalty of ₹1 crore each on Mobikwik and Spice Money for non-compliance of norms. "RBI has imposed monetary penalty on two Payment System Operators (PSOs) for committing offences of the nature referred to in Section 26 (6) of the Payment and Settlement Systems Act, 2007 (PSS Act)," RBI said in a statement.

Hero MotoCorp, Volkswagen to increase prices from January

New Delhi: India's largest two-wheeler maker Hero MotoCorp on Thursday said it will increase prices of its entire model range by up to ₹2,000 from January 4, 2022 in order to offset the impact of rise in input cost. The company will make an upward revision in the ex-showroom prices of its motorcycles and scooters, with effect from January 4, 2022, Hero MotoCorp said in a statement.

HSBC AMC TO BUY L&T MF FOR ₹3,200 CR

New Delhi: L&T Finance Holdings has decided to sell its 100% stake in its asset management company (AMC) to HSBC Asset Management for close to ₹3,200 crore, the former said in an exchange filing. The transaction is subject to requisite regulatory approvals. L&T Finance Holdings in a statement said the divestment of Mutual Fund business is in line with the strategic objective of the firm of unlocking value from its subsidiaries to strengthen its balance sheet. L&T Mutual Fund is the 12th largest Asset Management Company (AMC) in India and manages ₹80,000 crore across a basket of equity, fixed income, hybrid schemes to retail and institutional investors. The company has built a strong retail investor base that comprises 64% of its overall AUM.

IPO JOURNEY

Value buying, focus on Tier-II markets key to Snapdeal's revival

ENS ECONOMIC BUREAU
@ Bengaluru

E-COMMERCE company backed by SoftBank group, Snapdeal, which filed for IPO this week, has come a long way since 2017, as it struggled to sustain and also called off sale to its rival, Flipkart.

Soon, it started on the Snapdeal 2.0 journey and focused on its core audience- value-conscious mega segment. Snapdeal 2.0 also focuses on positive unit economics. Fashion, home & kitchen, and beauty & personal care account for 90% of Snapdeal sales.

Snapdeal's delivered units have grown 86.3% over the last two quarters from 4.61 million in Q4FY21 to 8.59 million in Q2FY22.

Its net merchandise value (NMV) also grew 82.48% over the last two quarters. The company's trade receivables for six months ended September 30, 2021 were ₹12.69 crore and its trade receivables turnover ratio was 38.92.

As more Indians, particularly from Tier-II and III cities are now shopping online, Snapdeal enabled users to buy in their local language. The Snapdeal app is available in different languages to engage with customers.

Over 70% of the company's users are from outside Tier-II towns. For the six months ended September 30, 2021, 13.07%, 14.45% and 72.48% of its shipped units were purchased by buyers in metro cities, Tier-I cities and Tier II+ cities, respectively.

Also, 99% of the company's orders come through mobile phones.

In a blog post earlier this year, Kunal Bahl, Co-founder and CEO, Snapdeal, said, "Our sharp and exclusive focus on the value segment is evident from the fact that more than 95% of the products sold on Snapdeal are below ₹1,000. The average selling price on Snapdeal is below ₹500."

According to RedSeer, approximately 77% of lifestyle retail demand in India is from the value segment, which represents the total addressable market for players in the value segment.

Value lifestyle retail was worth $88 billion in FY2021 and is expected to grow at a CAGR of approximately 15% to $175 billion by FY26.

Commenting on Snapdeal's recent IPO, Anil Joshi, Managing Partner, Unicorn India Ventures, said, "Pre-2015 Snapdeal was one of the prominent e-commerce players. The initial success also brought in access to money resulting in many acquisitions. While growing, the company spent a lot of money on unrelated or non-strategic acquisitions. In 2017, things went the other way and the company saw a downfall including a failed acquisition by Flipkart."

Blockbuster debut for MedPlus; lists 30% higher

ENS ECONOMIC BUREAU
@ New Delhi

MEDPLUS Health Services shares made a stellar debut on stock exchanges on Thursday as the stock began trading at ₹1,015 per share on the BSE, up ₹219 or 27.51% from the IPO price of ₹796 per share. On the NSE, MedPlus shares listed at ₹1,040 apiece, a premium of over 30%.

The scrip closed its first session at ₹1120.85 on the BSE and had a market capitalisation of ₹13,372.38 crore.

The strong performance of MedPlus came after a series of dismal openings for IPOs on the stock exchanges. Rakesh Jhunjhunwala-backed Metro Brands on Wednesday made a weak debut with the stock getting listed at ₹436 on BSE, a discount of 12.8% over its issue price of ₹500. Metro was also the second Jhunjhunwala-backed IPO, after Star Health and Allied Insurance, which got listed below the offer price in a row.

Coming to MedPlus, analysts are sure of the company's long-term growth and even believe that it may emerge as a 'wealth creating' stock.

Yash Gupta, Equity Research Analyst at Angel One suggested short-term investors to book profit as the company was trading at EV (enterprise Value) / EBITDA of 37 times based on H1FY2022, in line with the listed peers.

In the long term, Gupta said investors can wait for lower levels to buy, as MedPlus, the second-largest pharmacy retailer in India, offers a good value proposition to customers in terms of discount, a range of products and fast delivery.

Tally Solutions ties up with AWS to provide secure infra

UMA KANNAN @ Bengaluru

BUSINESS management software provider Tally Solutions has partnered with Amazon Web Services (AWS) to provide entrepreneurs and their teams access to TallyPrime anytime on any network.

"We are seeing this collaboration with AWS as one of the ways of getting our customers who grapple with various options in the market, use an affordable solution that meets their needs of centralised access to Tally for a distributed operation," Tejas Goenka, Managing Director, Tally Solutions told TNIE.

"Cloud is going to be an inevitable part of the end customer experience as we look into the future. Customers want to access data anytime anywhere; they want to get greater benefits because they are now working on what they can call a 'connected' system," he said.

Surya Brasil bullish on Indian market

SAMIKSHA GOEL @ New Delhi

GLOBAL personal care brand Surya Brasil, which recently forayed in India with the launch of its hair care range in August this year, is planning to sell at least 2,00,000 units in the calendar year 2022, which would translate to nearly $2.4 million in terms of retail turnover.

Clelia Cecilia Angelon, founder & CEO, Surya Brasil, in an interaction with TNIE said that the hair care market in India is huge but it is being dominated by conventional hair care products.

The loyal customer base of the company belongs to a niche segment that does not mind spending a few extra cents for donning cruelty free hair, Angelon said adding, "We also call it niche because almost all hair colours available in India have some harmful chemicals as PPD, Ammonia and its byproducts."

"Our target consumers are those who are more conscious of health and sustainability with the rising awareness around harmful chemicals and toxins," she said. Surya Brasil's products are available on e-commerce channels like Amazon and Flipkart and will soon be visible at modern trade chain stores like health and glow and wellness..

The company has already introduced 15 shades of henna cream and a complete hair colour fixation range of products in India. It further plans to launch the Ecosilver range - to ensure henna treatment for grey hair - in India by the mid of 2022.

IN THE MATTER OF:

An Application for approval of Truing up of FY-21, Aggregate Revenue Requirement (ARR) & Expected Revenue from Charges (ERC) for Wire and Supply Business for FY-23 to FY-25 and Retail Supply Tariff for FY-23 of Bangalore Electricity Supply Company Limited (BESCOM), Bengaluru 560 001 under Section 27 of the Karnataka Electricity Reform Act, 1999 and under Section 61 & 62 of Electricity Act, 2003, read with relevant KERC (Tariff) Regulations including KERC (Terms and Conditions for Determination of Tariff for Distribution and Retail sale of electricity) Regulations 2006 and MYT Order No. D/01/6, Dated 31.05.2006.

Bangalore Electricity Supply Company Limited (BESCOM),
K R Circle, Bengaluru-560 001 ..... PETITIONER

N O T I C E

Bangalore Electricity Supply Company (BESCOM), has filed a Petition before the Hon'ble Commission for Truing up of FY-21, Aggregate Revenue Requirement (ARR) & Expected Revenue from Charges (ERC) for Wire and Supply Business for FY-23 to FY-25 and Retail Supply Tariff for FY-23 under Section 27 of the Karnataka Electricity Reform Act, 1999 and under Section 61 & 62 of Electricity Act, 2003, read with relevant KERC (Tariff) Regulations including KERC (Terms and Conditions for Determination of Tariff for Distribution and Retail sale of electricity) Regulations 2006 and MYT Order No. D/01/6, Dated 31.05.2006. The details of ERC filing are as under

1. NEED FOR REVISION:

A revenue deficit arises due to mismatch between Aggregate Revenue Requirement (ARR) and Revenue Receipts from existing tariff of BESCOM as detailed below:

Rs. in Crore

Year	Revenue Receipts	Revenue Requirement	Revenue Deficit
2020-21*	19680.84	21866.14	2185.29
2022-23	23418.25	28027.81	4609.57

* Proposed for True up  Modified estimate with FY-21 deficit carried forward

Based on the above ARR, the estimated Average Cost of Supply of power is more than the Average Rate of Realization as detailed below:

Year	Average Cost of Supply (Rs/unit)	Average Rate of Realization (Rs/unit)	Deficit (Rs./Unit)
2022-23	9.62	8.04	1.58

Hence, the revision in tariff is required. BESCOM plans to recover Rs. 4609.57 Crs. in FY-23 from the proposed revision of Tariff.

2. PROPOSED TARIFF INCREASE: Estimated deficit of FY-22 will be taken up at the time of Truing up of FY-22. The deficit upto FY-21 and estimated deficit for FY-23 of Rs. 4609.57 Crs is proposed to be recovered by Tariff increase. The tariffs applicable to various categories of consumers are as shown in Annexure-1.
3. Ready Reckoner showing the monthly bill as per existing tariff and bill as per the proposed tariff for different categories of consumers is shown as Annexure-2. Application filed before Commission is also available at all O&M Circle Offices (Offices of the Superintending Engineers, (Ele), C, O&M, Bengaluru (North), Bengaluru (South), Bengaluru (East), Bengaluru (West), Bengaluru (Rural), Tumakuru, Kolar, Davanagere and Ramanagara) and BESCOM, Corporate Office, K.R.Circle, Bengaluru – 560 001.
4. Pursuant to Regulation-5 of KERC (Tariff) Regulations 2000, it is hereby notified that the persons who are interested in filing their objections to the above petition may file the same with the Receiving Officer, O/o the Secretary, Karnataka Electricity Regulatory Commission, No.16, C-1, Millers Tank Bed Area, Vasantha Nagar, Bengaluru – 560 052, along with the documents on which they want to rely upon, in six sets, duly supported by an affidavit within thirty days from the date of first publication of this Tariff Notification and also indicate whether they want to be heard in person. A copy of the objection may be marked to Director (Finance), Second Floor, Belaku Bhavana, Corporate office, BESCOM, K.R.Circle, Bengaluru-560 001 for furnishing replies to the objections.
5. For reference of those who are interested, copies of the petition are available for inspection at all Circle Offices (Offices of the Superintending Engineers (Ele) (C, O&M), Bengaluru (North), Bengaluru (South), Bengaluru (East), Bengaluru (West), Bengaluru (Rural), Tumakuru, Kolar, Davanagere and Ramanagara).
6. They may also obtain copies of the required portion of the petition by paying photocopying charges.
7. Further, full set of petition together with supporting material will also be made available to the interested persons by the Superintending Engineer Ele., of C,O&M Circles as in para 5, on payment of Rs. 400/- and the same is also available for sale at BESCOM Corporate Office, K.R.Circle, Bengaluru – 560001.

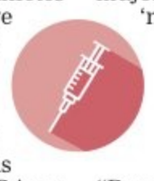
Sunrisers Hyderabad on Thursday named West Indies batting legend Brian Lara and South African pace great Dale Steyn as part of their revamped support staff ahead of the 2022 IPL. Lara has been named strategic advisor and batting coach. Steyn has been appointed the pace bowling coach. Muttiah Muralitharan remains the spin bowling coach.

NDTL regains WADA accreditation, to help NADA test more samples

INDRANEEL DAS @Chennai

THE National Dope Testing Laboratory (NDTL) has finally got its accreditation back. Sports minister Anurag Thakur revealed this on Thursday through a tweet: "National Dope Testing Laboratory (NDTL) regains the World Anti-Doping Agency (WADA) accreditation." It's more than two years and four months since NDTL lost its accreditation in August, 2019. WADA also confirmed the development late on Thursday.

It is significant because the accreditation has been restored during a busy year with two multi-discipline mega events — Commonwealth Games and Asian Games — slated for 2022. This will give an opportunity for India to test more athletes next year. This will give National Anti-Doping Agency (NADA) the opportunity to collect more samples and reduce cost of testing as well. India's NDTL is among the cheaper WADA-accredited labs and a lot of countries used to test samples in India.



Sports ministry has been desperate to get back the accreditation and the lab was under review since January last year. Lack of experts to handle Isotope Ratio Mass Spectrometry (IRMS) machine was one major hurdle besides other 'non-conformities'. India even contributed $1 million to WADA for research and development. India was sending samples abroad for testing.

According to a WADA, "Based on the pandemic conditions, WADA's Laboratory Expert Advisory Group (Lab EAG) concluded that a remote assessment was the only option available, and scheduling of the remote assessment was delayed until the Laboratory could fully participate in September 2021 (due to the pandemic's impact on the Laboratory)." The Lab EAG finally concluded that the NDTL had met the conditions imposed based on remote assessment.

Bad AAF record

According to the 2020 WADA Testing Figures Report, India once again finds itself among the top two nations on Adverse Analytical Findings (AAF). Despite limited collection in 2020 — there's a 46 per cent overall decrease in sample collection — India's 55 AAFs is behind only the United States' 136. Compared to the number of sampled collected by the two National Anti-Doping Organisations, NADA collected just 1186 samples (including blood), while the US 7756. Percentage-wise, India stands at 4.6 per cent while the US just 1.8 per cent.

WADA REPORT

SAMPLES ANALYSED

2019: 278,047

2020: 149,758

46% decrease in the overall number

AAFs

2019: 2,702 (0.97%)

2020: 1,009 (0.67%)

According to the report, sample collection was hit during 2020 because of Covid. In India, there were less competitions and collection of samples started somewhere in October. In competition collections stood at 708 and out of competition was 423. The number of samples collected in the previous years was 4026 (2019 Testing Report), way more than what NADA collected during the Covid-affected year. In competition urine sample numbers stood at 2248 while out of competition at 1778. The 2021 data, which is expected to be more than 2020, will be available next year.

Focus on Olympic sports

In the 2019 Anti-Doping Rule Violations Report, India is among the top three countries behind Russia and Italy with 152 cases. The AAFs in 2019 was as high as 225. India's 4.6 per cent positive cases is much higher than overall 0.67 total per cent of AAFs (1,009 AAFs from 149,758 samples).

Srikanth may face Loh; Sindhu, Sen get easy draws

PTI @ New Delhi

COMEBACK man Kidambi Srikanth might clash with Singapore's Loh Kean Yew in a rematch of their World Championships final after being drawn in the same half, while PV Sindhu and Lakshya Sen received easy draws in the Yonex-Sunrise India Open 2022 to be held from January 11 to 16.

Top seed Srikanth, who regained his place in world's top-10, will open his campaign against compatriot Siril Verma and is likely to get another chance to avenge his loss against World champion Loh Kean Yew as they are drawn to clash in the semifinals.

PV Sindhu, seeded top, will hope to lay claim on her first title of the new year when she begins her campaign against compatriot Sri Krishna Priya Kudaravalli. She could face Russian fifth seed Evgeniya Kosetskaya in the last-8 stage.

Fans would be hoping for the marquee all-India summit clash between Sindhu and Saina Nehwal, who has also received a relatively tough draw. The fourth seed Nehwal is likely to square off against seventh seed Iris Wang of USA in the quarterfinals and second seed Busanan Ongbamrungphan in the semifinals.

OLIVIER TWIST IN SA TOUR

The 29-year-old South African pacer will be making a comeback in Tests after two years

VENKATA KRISHNA B @ Chennai

IN 2019, in the middle of South Africa's home summer, Duanne Olivier literally turned his back on South Africa. One of the last ones to take the Kolpak deal, he had not only declined a two-year national contract offered by South Africa, Olivier still wanted to play Test cricket. But not for South Africa. He was harbouring ambition to play for England. And nearly three years later, thanks to Brexit rules, Olivier is back home and is likely to be one of the pacers who will take the field against India in the Boxing Day Test in Centurion.

For a team that will badly miss the pace and hostility of Anrinch Nortje, the return of Olivier only strengthens them further. He may not be as quick as Nortje or Kagiso Rabada, but when Olivier took the Kolpak deal, South Africa knew what they were going to miss. On pitches where there is good bounce and visiting batters take time to get used to the pace on South African pitches, Olivier was tailor-made. A lethal short-ball that got batters into uncomfortable position and nagging length around the corridor of uncertainty which made even the best in the business go fishing outside off-stump, Olivier had it all. In his short 10-Test career between 2017-2019, which saw him play eight matches at home, he averages 17.82 at an incredible strike-rate of 28.7.

Duanne Olivier

That South Africa has welcomed him with arms wide open isn't a surprise. The only one who sounded so was Olivier himself. Despite making himself available for selection by turning out for Lions in South Africa's domestic cricket, Olivier comes into the series on the back of being the leading wicket-taker in the local four-day tournament. While the three seasons he spent at Yorkshire has made him more mature, as his captain Dean Elgar pointed out, Olivier comes back with wealth of experience and now has learnt to pitch it consistently on a fuller-length, which is sort of the ideal one in Centurion and Johannesburg, the two venues which will host the first two Tests.

India players attend a practice session in Centurion ahead of their first Test against South Africa, on Thursday | TWITTER

"I want our best opportunity to win matches and win series, and in order for that, you need to make tough calls on bringing people back, for instance. I was very keen to have him back," Elgar said. "There's no bad feelings about what's happened in the past. I want to win matches for South Africa, I want to win series for South Africa, and I'm pretty sure I've got 100% backing when it comes to that in our change room. It's nice to have him back," he added.

In that sense of giving the team best opportunity to win matches, Olivier provides Elgar more variety in the attack that now consists of Rabada, Lungi Ngidi, Marco Jansen, Keshav Maharaj. With seam movement combined with bounce still a dreaded factor for batters across the globe, Olivier will have a big role to play by virtue of being a new-ball bowler. "The UK helped me a lot in perfecting that fuller length that every bowler wants to bowl. For me, it was quite difficult because it can come across floaty and I wasn't that consistent. I am still working on it," Olivier said. "I can still go short if I want to, but at the end of the day, the games dictates that. People thought I only bowl short and fair enough, I did that, but now I feel like I have a different element to my game," he said.

For a team that came up with below-par performance in the first World Test Championship cycle after losing key players, the return of Olivier is a timely one. For the man himself, whose Test career appeared to have ended for the good, this is a new beginning, which is full of promise and hope. "I am a nervous person when it comes to playing. Wherever I play, I am always nervous. If it's my first over, I am very nervous. I'll have different feeling this time. It will be interesting to see what the nerves will be like, but I'm sure, if I am selected to play, I think my nerves will be shot through the roof," Olivier said.

Best chance for India to win in SA: Raman

ASHOK VENUGOPAL @ Chennai

FORMER India cricketer, WV Raman, believes that India have an excellent opportunity to register their first Test series win in South Africa. His observations stem from the fact that the current South Africa side lacks the balance that the past sides had. Raman, the first Indian to score a century in South Africa, also insists that India will miss the services of Rohit Sharma. He is also confident that the Indian attack will be lethal in South Africa. Excerpts

On India's chances this time

South Africa is a proud sporting nation and they play the game very hard. However, given that their side is in a transition stage, this will be the best opportunity for India. Besides, India have done well abroad, overcoming extreme challenges abroad of late.

On India's below average record there

They have been fortunate to have a steady supply of quality fast bowlers and they were formidable at home. Added to that was the solidity in their batting. To state the obvious, India need to put enough runs on the board. (If they can do that), they have a potent pace attack and Ravichandran Ashwin is on the top of his game. However, India's batting line-up is short of runs and wil need healthy contributions.

On his thoughts on India's bowling attack

It's been the envy of other captains. They have shown time and again that they are potent enough even on flat decks. Ashwin is looking good.

Two more Premier League games off

LONDON: Liverpool's clash with Leeds and Watford's trip to Wolves, scheduled for December 26, became the latest Premier League games to be postponed due to coronavirus outbreaks on Thursday. A total of 12 matches have been called off in two weeks as Britain battles record numbers of positive Covid cases due to the Omicron variant of the virus. Earlier this week Premier League clubs rejected the option of temporarily halting the season.

U-19 Asia Cup: India thrash UAE in opener

DUBAI: Harnoor Singh struck a fine hundred before the Indian bowlers ran through the opposition to complete a 154-run rout of UAE in their opening U-19 Asia Cup match here on Thursday. Put in to bat, India put up 282 for five, courtesy Harnoor's 120 off 130 balls and skipper Yash Dhull's 63 off 68 balls. The home team's batters came a cropper against the Indian bowling line up, folding up for a paltry 128 in 34.3 overs.

GUJARAT GIANTS BEAT JAIPUR PINK PANTHERS

BENGALURU: Gujarat Giants' defence proved to be too hot to handle for Jaipur Pink Panthers as the Season 1 Champions succumbed to a 34 – 27 defeat in Pro Kabaddi League clash in Bengaluru. Girish Maruti Ernak secured a HIGH 5 (7 tackle points) and was ably accompanied by teammate Parvesh Bhainswal (4 raid points) as Gujarat secured an important victory to open their campaign.Jaipur, despite matching blows for most of the match, didn't have the raiding strength to a well-oiled Gujarat defence but will take positives from a tactically-fought Kabaddi match.

TAMIL NADU WILL TAKE ON JAYDEV UNADKAT-LED SAURASHTRA IN THE SEMIFINALS OF THE VIJAY HAZARE TROPHY AT KL SAINI STADIUM, JAIPUR ON FRIDAY. A LOOK AT HOW THE TEAMS HAVE MATCHED UP..

MAIDEN CLASH

Despite the long history of the competition, the two teams will face each other for the first time in Vijay Hazare Trophy, since its inception in 2006. Saurashtra is on an unbeaten streak this season and will be hoping to continue the same against a powerhouse like TN.

221 The highest Saurashtra bowling attack conceded in this edition is 221 against Hyderabad. Dharmendra Jadeja, Chirag Jani, Chetan Sakariya and Yuvraj Chudasama have led the bowling from the front with ample support from Unadkat.

TN BATTING VS SAURASHTRA BOWLING

The biggest plus for TN's batting is the fact that they haven't relied on one particular batter as at least four players have scored over 190 runs. In a high-scoring ground, the semifinal clash could be a contest between TN's batting and the consistent Saurashtra attack.

The X-factor Sharukh Khan has smashed 194 runs at a strike rate of 186.53 so far in five innings. TN have unleashed him only in the last 15 overs unless forced to do otherwise. For Saurashtra, Prerak Mankad has been the most consistent batter with 339 runs at 114.9 strike rate. The way he handles TN's spin attack could decide the fate of the game for Saurashtra.

BIG HOPE

Post Worlds lift off, shuttler Lakshya aims for more

ASHIM SUNAM @ Bengaluru

AFTER a lack of matches in 2020 due to the pandemic, 2021 was going to be a challenge for Indian shuttler Lakshya Sen. He has passed that challenge with flying colours, becoming just the third Indian man to medal at the World Championships. But it did not happen overnight for the pride of Almora, who joined the Prakash Padukone Badminton Academy in Bengaluru five years ago. He spent hours honing his skills at the academy under various coaches. He eventually became world number one in juniors and clinched silver at the 2018 Youth Olympics as well. The bronze medallist, in an interaction with select media, spoke on various topics, including the coaches, who have shaped his career. Excerpts.

About the season & Worlds

It was a good season for me. To end the year with a bronze, it was a good run for me, especially in the last two months. It is going to give me great confidence going ahead.

On competing with big players leading up to Worlds

It was a good experience for me playing Momota and Axelsen twice. Those matches gave me a lot of confidence and in between there was training and I could take care of my body.

On contribution of coaches so far

From a very young age, Prakash and Vimal sir have supported me. They have both been there in training, providing me with inputs. Sometimes Vimal sir travelled with me for tournaments too. In 2019, we went to Denmark for three months. Before that also, Morten sir was coming and travelling for tournaments. When I started working with Morten sir, I was ranked 110 and then I moved to the top 30. He changed my playing style a little — from always attacking to building the shots better, constructing rallies etc.

On playing longer rallies

When I was at the junior level, I used to play an attacking game. I am still a naturally attacking player, but at the same time when you play at the top circuit, you just cannot score points in three to four shots. You have to construct rallies. Like when you are playing against Momota, he has a solid defence, you have to move them (top players) around. You have to vary a lot from the back, mixing up with the drop or half smashes. If you just keep hitting, you lose a lot of energy.... everyone reads your game. Take the top 15 or 20 players, everyone has good defence, it is not easy to score so you have to construct a rally better by playing sharp shots from the back, slices, half smashes etc.

On training with Axelsen

That really helped me as I could play with them (Axelsen and other shuttlers around September). It was one on one with the players I was going to play in the top circuit. Playing with around four to five quality players gave me the momentum.

STRINGENT CURBS KICK IN AS SPAIN SHIFTS GEAR

Spain's Catalonia will reimpose a nighttime curfew starting Christmas Eve to fight a record surge in Covid-19 infections following a court ruling on Thursday. The northeastern region is the first to reinstate a nightly curfew in response to the Omicron variant. Catalonia's regional government earlier this month asked the courts to approve a 1-6 am curfew in areas where infection rates surpass 250 cases per 1,00,000 inhabitants, a level recorded in most of the region.

CHINA PUTS CITY OF 13-MN IN LOCKDOWN AMID OUTBREAK

Stringent measure as part of Beijing's zero-tolerance policy ahead of high-stakes Winter Olympics

COVID

BEIJING: China plunged a city of 13 million people into lockdown on Thursday to stamp out an increase in coronavirus infections, as the country doubles down on its "zero tolerance" policy just weeks before it is set to host the Winter Olympics.

The restrictions in the northeastern city of Xi'an took effect at midnight Wednesday, with no word on when they might be lifted. They are some of the harshest since China imposed a strict lockdown last year on more than 11 million people in and around the city of Wuhan, where the coronavirus was first detected in late 2019.

One person from each household will be allowed out every two days to buy household necessities, a government order said. Other family members were required to stay at home, although the rule was not being rigorously enforced, according to social media posts. People who happened to be staying in hotels became stuck.

There was no word on whether the new cases were of the recently identified omicron variant that appears more contagious and is driving surges in many parts of the world — or the previous version, delta. China has reported just seven omicron cases so far, but none in Xi'an.

Though the latest outbreak is 1,000 km southwest of the Olympic host city of Beijing, any sign that the pandemic might be worsening in China will raise questions about whether and how it will manage to welcome thousands of athletes, officials and journalists when the Games open in just weeks on February 4.

On the one hand, there is a tremendous amount of national pride and investment riding on the Olympics and few would want a cancellation, postponement or dramatic reimagining at this late stage. On the other, Chinese authorities have adopted draconian measures throughout the pandemic under their policy of seeking to stamp out every last case — and it's hard to see how welcoming so many people from abroad will square with that strategy.

That "zero tolerance" policy, which has led to frequent lockdowns, universal masking and mass testing, has not been entirely successful. It has resulted in massive disruptions to travel and trade, but Beijing credits it with largely containing the spread of the virus. Overall, China has reported 4,636 deaths and 100,644 cases of Covid-19.

Xi'an — the capital of Shaanxi province, famed for its imperial relics, as well as a major center of industry — reported another 63 locally transmitted cases on Thursday, pushing the city's total to at least 211 over the past week.

GIFTING SEASON

Day after, Merck's pill also gets the nod

VACCINE

WASHINGTON: The US Food and Drug Administration (FDA) on Thursday authorised Merck's Covid pill for high risk adults, a day after a similar pill by Pfizer was given the green light. "Today's authorisation provides an additional treatment option against the Covid-19 virus in the form of a pill that can be taken orally," said FDA scientist Patrizia Cavazzoni.

US health regulators on Wednesday authorised the first pill against Covid-19, a Pfizer drug that Americans will be able to take at home. The long-awaited milestone comes as US cases, hospitalisations and deaths are rising.

The drug, Paxlovid, is a faster way to treat early Covid-19 infections, though initial supplies will be limited. All of the previously authorised drugs require an IV or an injection. Pfizer's drug is all but certain to be the preferred option because of its mild side effects and superior effectiveness.

U.S. REPORT

Saudi is building ballistic missile with China's help

Riyadh's advancements could complicate US efforts to curb Iran's nuclear programme

WASHINGTON

SAUDI Arabia is actively manufacturing its own ballistic missiles with support from China, CNN reported on Thursday quoting US sources familiar with the development.

The two countries have been collaborating for months and China has made multiple large-scale transfers of sensitive ballistic missile technology, sources told CNN.

Satellite images obtained by the US network showed the kingdom is manufacturing ballistic missiles in at least one location within the country.

Experts told CNN that a burn operation occurred at a facility near Dawadmi, some 300 km west of capital Riyadh. They say this is the first unambiguous evidence that the facility is working to produce ballistic missiles.

"The key piece of evidence is that the facility is operating a 'burn pit' to dispose of solid-propellant leftover from the production of ballistic missiles," Jeffrey Lewis, a weapons expert told CNN,

"While significant attention has been focused on Iran's large ballistic missile program, Saudi Arabia's development and now production of ballistic missiles has not received the same level of scrutiny," Lewis said.

Experts say the development could complicate US President Joe Biden's efforts to curb Iran's nuclear programme.

Saudi's ballistic missile advancements could mean Iran may refuse to accept any curbs on its own ballistic missile programme.

"The domestic production of ballistic missiles by Saudi Arabia suggests that any diplomatic effort to control missile proliferation would need to involve other regional actors, like Israel, that produce their own ballistic missiles," Lewis told CNN.

Putin presses West on security guarantees

MOSCOW

RUSSIAN President Vladimir Putin urged the West on Thursday to move quickly to meet Russia's demand for security guarantees precluding NATO's expansion to Ukraine and the deployment of the military alliance's weapons there.

Speaking during a marathon annual news conference, the Russian leader welcomed talks with the US that are set to start in Geneva next month, but sternly warned that Moscow expects the discussion to produce quick results.

"We have clearly and precisely let them know that any further NATO expansion eastward is unacceptable," Putin said.

Last week, Moscow submitted draft security documents demanding that NATO deny membership to Ukraine and other former Soviet countries and roll back the alliance's military deployments in Central and Eastern Europe. A key principle of the NATO alliance is that membership is open to any qualifying country. "Is it us who are putting missiles near the US borders?" Putin said.

"No, it's the US who came to our home with their missiles. They are already on the threshold of our home. Is it some excessive demand not to place any offensive systems near our home?" Moscow presented its demand amid soaring tensions over a Russian troop buildup near Ukraine that has stoked fears of a possible invasion.

US President Joe Biden warned Putin in a conference call earlier this month that Russia will face "severe consequences" if it attacks Ukraine.

Putin previously denied having plans to launch an attack but has described a NATO expansion and weapons deployment in Ukraine as a "red line." Asked Thursday if he could provide a guarantee that Russia will not invade Ukraine, Putin snapped in response: "It's you who must give us guarantees and give them immediately, now, and not have idle talk about it for decades."

"How the Americans would respond if we put our missiles on the US borders with Canada or Mexico?" he exclaimed.

The US and its allies have said they won't give Russia the kind of guarantee on Ukraine that Putin wants.

American officials are conferring with European allies in advance of the Geneva talks.

The Russian leader charged during his news conference that the West had "cheated, blatantly swindled" Moscow by offering verbal pledges in the 1990s not to expand NATO's presence east and then enlarging to incorporate former Soviet bloc countries. AP

China sets deadline for celebs to pay taxes

Beijing: China's tax authorities have set a 10-day deadline for entertainers and social media influencers to pay overdue taxes, part of a government campaign to tighten the noose on tax evasion and celebrity excesses. Beijing has launched a sweeping state crackdown on tax evasion. Tax bureaus in several entertainment hubs across the country—including Beijing, Shanghai, and the provinces of Guangdong, Zhejiang and Jiangsu—warned celebrities who have under-reported earnings could face severe penalties if they don't refile by year end, according to government notices issued on Wednesday. Trump asks Supreme Court to block release of documents to riots panel

WASHINGTON

FORMER US President Donald Trump turned to the Supreme Court on Thursday in a last-ditch effort to keep documents away from the House committee investigating the January 6 insurrection at the Capitol.

In a 229-page filing, Trump's attorneys argued in their petition to the Supreme Court that "both the Constitution and the Presidential Records Act give former Presidents a clear right to protect their confidential records from premature dissemination. This case presents a clear threat to that right."

A federal appeals court ruled against Trump two weeks ago, but prohibited documents held by the National Archives from being turned over before the Supreme Court has a chance to weigh in. Trump appointed three of the nine justices.

Trump sued the House January 6 committee and the National Archives to stop the White House from allowing the release of documents related to the insurrection. Trump is claiming that as a former president he has right to assert executive privilege over the records, arguing that releasing them would damage the presidency in the future.

But President Joe Biden determined that the documents were in the public interest and that executive privilege should therefore not be invoked. The appeals court agreed with a lower court ruling, however, that President Joe Biden could waive executive privilege on the records so they could be handed over to the congressional panel investigating the violence.

'Glitter of our armour' perverting spirituality: Pope

VATICAN CITY

POPE Francis urged Vatican cardinals, bishops and bureaucrats on Thursday to embrace humility this Christmas season, saying their pride, self-interest and the "glitter of our armour" was perverting their spiritual lives and corrupting the church's mission.

As he has in the past, Francis used his annual Christmas address to take Vatican administrators to task for their perceived moral and personal failings, denouncing in particular those pride-filled clerics who 'rigidly' hide behind Catholic Church traditions rather than seek out the neediest with humility.

As they have in the past, cardinals and bishops sat stone-faced as they listened to Francis lecture them in the Hall of Blessings, which was otherwise decked out in jolly twinkling Christmas trees and poinsettias.

"The humble are those who are concerned not simply with the past but also with the future, since they know how to look ahead, to spread their branches, remembering the past with gratitude," Francis told them.

"The proud, on the other hand, simply repeat, grow rigid and enclose themselves in that repetition, feeling certain about what they know and fearful of anything new because they cannot control it."

The proud who are so inward-looking are consumed with their own interests, the pontiff said. "As a consequence, they neither learn from their sins nor are they genuinely open to forgiveness. This is a tremendous corruption disguised as a good. We need to avoid it," he added.

Since becoming the Pope in 2013, Francis has used his Christmas address to rail against the Curia, as the Holy See's bureaucracy is known, denouncing the 'spiritual Alzheimer's that some members suffer and the resistance he had encountered to his efforts to reform and revitalise the institution and the broader Catholic Church.

Those reforms kicked into high gear this year, and some of the top Catholic hierarchy bore the brunt as Francis ordered a 10% pay cut for cardinals, imposed a 40-euro gift cap for Holy See personnel and passed a law allowing cardinals and bishops to be criminally prosecuted by the Vatican's own tribunal. AP

Outrage as university removes Tiananmen massacre memorial

Hong Kong's oldest university launched an overnight operation Thursday to dismantle a statue commemorating those killed in Beijing's Tiananmen Square in the latest blow to academic freedoms as China cracks down

THE PILLAR OF SHAME

The memorial is part of a series of works by Danish sculptor Jens Galschioet, all the same height and typically made of bronze, copper and concrete. They have been erected in Hong Kong, Mexico and Brazil, and are designed to remind people of events to ensure they don't happen again

The sculpture features 50 anguished faces and tortured bodies piled on one another and commemorates democracy protesters killed by Chinese troops around Tiananmen Square in 1989

It was erected in Hong Kong in 1997 during an annual candlelight vigil to commemorate the event. The text at the base of the sculpture reads, "The old cannot kill the young" in English and Chinese

ERASING HISTORY

China's Communist Party has worked hard to scrub the June 4, 1989, Tiananmen crackdown from history on the mainland

Hong Kong, because it has greater freedoms than mainland China, together with Macao were the only places in the country that openly remembered those who died in the crackdown

Authorities don't allow any memorial and even whisk dissidents out of town so they can't organise any commemoration events around the anniversary

Beijing is currently remoulding Hong Kong in its own authoritarian image after democracy protests two years ago and commemorating Tiananmen has become illegal

SIGN OF A WIDENING CRACKDOWN

Hong Kong authorities have banned the annual vigil for Tiananmen massacre victims, citing Covid-19 risks

They have arrested the organisers of the vigil under a tough national security law enacted last year, driving the leaders to disband their group

They have seized materials from a temporary exhibit on Tiananmen that it had set up every year. Through it all, the Pillar of Shame remained standing on the Hong Kong University campus

8-metre-tall sculpture, which was taken away in parts, remembered the victims of China's 1989 crackdown on pro-democracy protests at Beijing's Tiananmen Square. Its removal is testament to the ruling Communist Party's efforts to erase the bloody events of that day

This is a really expensive sculpture. So if they destroy it, then of course we will sue them. It's not fair

Jens Galschiot, sculptor

LITERARY ICON JOAN DIDION DIES AGED 87

NEW YORK

JOAN Didion, a US literary icon credited with ushering in New Journalism with her essays on Los Angeles life in the tumultuous 1960s, died on Thursday. She was 87. She died from complications from Parkinson's disease, her publisher Penguin Random House said.

Didion's early work included her seminal 1968 essay collection Slouching Towards Bethlehem—which delighted critics and made her a bona fide star—as well as The White Album, another essay collection focusing on LA, and Play It as It Lays, a novel about Hollywood lives.

Along with Tom Wolfe, Nora Ephron and Gay Talese, Didion reigned in the pantheon of "New Journalists" who emerged in the 1960s and wedded literary style to nonfiction reporting. Tiny and frail even as a young woman, with large, sad eyes often hidden behind sun glasses and a soft, deliberate style of speaking, she was a novelist, playwright and essayist who once observed that "I am so physically small, so temperamentally unobtrusive, and so neurotically inarticulate that people tend to forget that my presence runs counter to their best interests." Didion received a National Humanities Medal in 2012, when she was praised for devoting "her life to noticing things other people strive not to see." For decades, she had engaged in the cool and ruthless dissection of politics and culture, from hippies to presidential campaigns to the kidnapping of Patty Hearst, and for her distrust of official stories. Agencies
